U. S. AIR SQUADRON COMMANDER MISSING

Brake - Beam Tourists in Police Court

SPRING WANDERLUST BRINGS BOYS HERE BY BOX CAR ROUTE

One Amateur Knight of the Road Flew, High School in California Because of Dismissal From Football Squad—District Court Story

Brought from San Diego, Cal., to Prince Edward Island via the all-rail bumpers and making it smoothly with but few interruptions ever since the big start from the Golden State on Feb. 4, last, a San Diego high school boy, accompanied by a youthful companion, picked up at Foster, O., was halted in the Boston & Maine south railroad yards, last evening, by railroad police.

Incidentally, with his humiliating dismissal from the spring football training squad, the San Diego lad deserted campus with 18 other dismissed youths convicted of disorderly conduct during a practice game with nearby town rivals.

95 DEAD, SCORE MISSING, 500 HURT AND DAMAGE SET AT $10,000,000

Picture of Desolation and Wreckage Left in Wake of Tornadoes Which Descended Upon Seven States—Dead and Injured Hurdled Hundreds of Feet

ATLANTA, Ga., May 1 (By the Associated Press).—With 95 persons known to be dead, more than a score missing, approximately 500 injured, some perhaps fatally, the southeast today set about measures of relief in regions stricken yesterday and Tuesday by the worst high tension storms in its history.

Tornadoes, descending with devastating violence upon widely separated sections, caused damage estimated at $10,000,000 in the seven states of North and South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Virginia, Louisiana and Arkansas. The last two were the first to suffer.

GAVE DEMONSTRATION OF INSPECTOR OF BUILDINGS WATER CURTAIN

The Chalfoux Co. gave a demonstration of its exterior water-curtain at 12:20 p. m. today, with several hundred persons gathered in the square to watch it and size up its effectiveness as a protection against fire.

John E. Moynahan Named by Mayor Donovan to Succeed Francis Connor

Apparently the curtain worked successfully in about every detail, there being only one or two water plugs that failed to function. Officials of the company watched the demonstration closely and checked up on all plug failures.

Mayor Donovan this morning announced the tentative appointment of John E. Moynahan as inspector of public buildings.

Protective Co. 1 was detailed by Chief Saunders for duty inside the building and they were busy most of the time sopping up water that seeped in through window casings that were not perfectly tight.

When the curtain is going full blast it creates a solid water fall from the roof to the ground floor and would make it practically impossible for fire elsewhere to communicate to the Chalfoux building. Today's demonstration continued for five minutes.

CARPENTIER KNOCKS OUT ARTHUR TOWNLEY

VIENNA, May 1 (By the Associated Press).—Georges Carpentier, the French fighter, knocked out Arthur Townley of England in the second round of their bout here today.

The referee declared Carpentier had won by a knockout but the crowd protested that the winning punch was foul.

TO BLOCK FREE STATE RAID

Irish Republicans Dump Arms and Explosives in Field and Destroy Them

Explosions Heard Eight Miles Away—Border Guards Are Strengthened

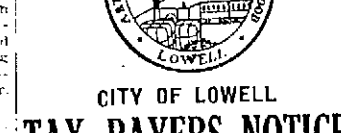

BELFAST, May 1.—Apparently in fear of a Free State raid the Irish republicans in the County Monaghan salient, facing County Fermanagh, where they are in considerable strength, dumped their arms and explosives yesterday in a field last night and destroyed them. The explosions were heard eight miles away. The border guards have since been strengthened.

Barracks Attacked
BELFAST, Ireland, May 1.—(By the Associated Press) The Kilmorner barracks at Ballinasloe, County Galway, were attacked and wrecked after a preliminary fusillade early today. The second barracks and the guards' bicycles and clothing were removed but the occupants of the barracks were not molested.

NEW HIGHLANDS POSTAL STATION OPENS

The new Highlands postal station, marking another progressive step in the city's postal service, was formally opened this morning by Postmaster Xavier A. Detella with ample ceremony, which consisted of the sale of a stamp to Representative Fred O. Lewis, one of the active workers for the establishment of the station in that district.

The new station is located at 89 Loring street, a short distance from the corner of Westford street, in the heart of the thickly settled Highlands residential district. It is similar to the Middle street station, being a "window" station rather than a delivery station, as is the Centralville branch. The station will be open, for the

REPORT FILED ON "GAS" PRICES

Special State Commission Can Suggest No Panacea For Existing Evils

States That Spread of 10 Cents Between Refiner and Producer Too Great

Suggests Elimination of So-Called Free Service Given to Attract Trade

The special state commission on the necessities of life, in response to an order of the Massachusetts legislature in February, that the commission investigate the recent rises in the price of gasoline in the commonwealth, together with the causes therefor and make such recommendations as in its opinion will remedy any abuses which might be found, has filed its report with the general court and states it is manifestly impossible for the commission to suggest a panacea for any evils which exist.

The commission, however, submits for consideration these suggestions: Elimination of so-called free services now given to attract trade; introduction of automatic self-service pumps; and the creation of large wholesale and retail stations in connection with existing service stations.

COUNCIL VOTES TONIGHT ON ANNUITY MOVE

Council President James J. Gallagher has called a special meeting of the city council for 8 o'clock tonight. The principal business of the session will be the matter of moving the station from its present location on the corner of Loring and Westford streets to a new location on the corner of Loring and Westford streets.

EXPRESS FEARS FOR HIS SAFETY

Commander of Air Fleet Not Heard From Since Leaving Chignik, Alaska

Terrific Gale With Wind Reaching Velocity of 100 Miles an Hour Off Coast

FAIRBANKS, Alaska, April 30 (By wireless to the Associated Press, via Bremerton, Wash.).—Fears are expressed here for the safety of Major Frederick L. Martin, commanding a United States army squadron, enroute to the globe, who left Chignik, Alaska, at 11:10 for Dutch Harbor, Unalaska Island, and who was not reported passing any points up to 5 o'clock tonight.

Residents at the small cannery station here, located on the southeastern point of Unalaska Island, near Katmai bay, have just passed through the worst gale ever known for this period of the year.

The North Pacific ocean has been lashed by terrific gales, the wind frequently reaching a velocity of 100 miles an hour. The air at the cannery station has been filled all day with snow blown from the mountains and neighboring peaks.

Even the sea gulls making their way across the water.

TWO AMERICAN PRIESTS SEIZED BY BANIDTS

HONG KONG, May 1.—Two American priests, Fathers Ford and Gibson, accompanied by a party of several Catholics, while crossing the frontier of the French concession of Kwan-chow Wan, en route to the interior, were attacked by bandits who seized the money and belongings of the entire party and detained the travelers. The French authorities later obtained the release of the captives and the return of some of their belongings.

MAYOR PRESAGES REDUCTION IN LOCAL TROLLEY FARES

His Honor Encouraged by Letter Received From Chairman of Board of Trustees—Lower Fares Likely When Industrial Conditions Are Restored

A reduction in Lowell trolley fares is quite likely when industrial conditions are restored to normal, according to a statement made this morning by Mayor Donovan. The mayor has had several conferences with Manager Maurice B. McCormick of the Lowell district and as a result Mr. McCormick has agreed to take the matter up with the trustees of the road.

TURN FIRE HOSE ON COMMUNISTS

Assembled Outside Labor Center in Athens for May Day Meeting

Ignore Fire Hose—Troops Fire Into Air Causing Panic and Stampede

ATHENS, May 1.—Communists assembled outside the labor center today for a May Day meeting despite strict orders that such a gathering must not be held. The communists refused to disperse even when a fire hose was turned on them. The troops then fired in the air. This caused a panic and a stampede, but up to noon no casualties were reported.

WIDOW OF JAKE HAMON TALKS

Says Late Husband's Ambition Was to Make His Son, Jake, Jr., President of U. S.

Says Hamon Swung Support to Harding at Her Request—Pays Tribute to Husband

CHICAGO, May 1.—The widow of Jake Hamon, Oklahoma politician and oil man, was not to be secretary of the interior—it was to make his son, Jake, Jr., president of the United States. This was disclosed today by her widow on her return from Washington, where she was summoned to testify before the Taft-Hartley anti-trust committee and then was not asked to take the witness chair.

"He wanted to be nothing else but chairman of the republic national committee," Mrs. Hamon said.

"I'll get it and I'll hold it for you," until Jake, Jr., is old enough to take it over," he told me," she said. "When I make him chairman of my place and let him hold it until he is wise enough and old enough and when that time comes, I'll make Jake, Jr., president—the youngest president of the United States."

Hamon swung his support from former Governor Lowden of Illinois to Warren G. Harding in the 1920 presidential campaign at her request. Mrs. Hamon said, Harding, she explained, was a distant relative of her family. Then the widow, who was married to a Chicago man and divorced since Hamon's death, paid a tribute to the deceased.

"I want to be known by his name," she said. "I shall henceforth be known always as Mrs. Jake Hamon."

INTERPRETATION OF TENNIS AMATEUR

NEW YORK, May 1.—After the conditional acceptance by the United States Lawn Tennis association of the resignation from the Davis cup and Olympic teams of Vincent Richards who joined William T. Tilden in protest against the play-writer rule, a storm cloud arose in the west which tennis enthusiasts hoped would hasten a revision of the rules. This cloud was in the form of news that Australia had taken the lead in organizing the strongest opposition possible to what will be a weakened American team if Tilden and Richards failed to play. Pressure is being brought to bear on officials of the tennis association according to one authoritative report.

president of the U. S. L. T. A. returned home yesterday after a long conference with Richards in which it was said an agreement was reached that the latter's resignation would not be finally accepted until consideration by the Davis cup committee.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR DANIEL J. MURPHY

The funeral of Daniel J. Murphy, one of the city's oldest residents and an organizer of the local branch of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, took place this morning from his late home, 31 Hoyt avenue, a solemn high requiem mass being sung in St. Patrick's church at 10 o'clock with Rev. Dennis J. Murphy of St. Paul's church, Cambridge, a nephew of deceased, as celebrant; Rev. John J. McGarry, D.C.L., I.P.P., of St. Patrick's church, as deacon, and Rev. Joseph A. Curtin of St. Patrick's, as sub-deacon. Seated within the sanctuary during the services were Rev. John T. Duffy, O.M.I., of the Immaculate Conception church; Rev. John J. Ryan, D.C.L., of St. Paul's church, Cambridge; Rev. John J. O'Hearn, pastor of St. Mary's church, Ipswich; Rev. John W. H. Corbett, S.T.L., of St. Anne's Somerville; Rev. James J. Kierland and Rev. William

DANIEL J. MURPHY

J. Conley, of West Quincy; Rev. Dennis A. O'Brien, Ph.D., of St. Paul's, Cambridge; Rev. James A. Supple, D.D., and Rev. Thomas J. McDonough of St. Patrick's, Lowell.

St. Patrick's church was well filled with sorrowing relatives and friends of the deceased. A testimonial of esteem for the man who was instrumental in founding their order locally and extending a sustaining influence over it for more than 50 years, the Ancient Order of Hibernians was well represented at the funeral. The funeral council, A.O.H., was represented by James O'Sullivan, John McInerney, Philip Farley, Patrick Finnerty, T. F. Haley and Patrick Liddy, other Hibernian delegates were County President John H. Frank of Natick, County Vice President Timothy McCarthy of Cambridge, Paul State President, Councilor James J. Harrold of Waltham, and Past State President John P. Donnelly of Cambridge.

During the mass, the solos were sung by Edward P. Skittery, Jr., Timothy Finnerty, Mrs. James Morris and Miss Frances Tighe. At the offertory, the "Domine Deus" was rendered by Mr. William L. Gookin, and as the body was being borne from the church, James E. Donnelly sustained the solo in the "De Profundis." Miss Sarah A. Murray presided at the organ.

The active bearers were the following members of the A.O.H.: Patrick Liddy, Patrick Finnerty, John P. McDonough, James J. Harrold, and John C. Kourke, while the honorary bearers were James E. Corbett, P. Kexes, L. Wotton, Hon. Thomas J. Enright, Joseph Burke, Chief Edward P. Saunders, William A. Hogan and Mr. James J. Gelsky.

The casket at the house and church was John E. Adams, Arthur J. Cumiskey and William Sullivan.

Interment was in the family lot in St. Patrick's cemetery, where the committal prayers were read by Rev. Dr. Murphy, assisted by Rev. Dr. McGarry, Rev. Dr. Smyth, Rev. Dr. McDonough, Rev. Dr. Ryan, Rev. Dr. Corbett and Rev. Dr. Conley.

Funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertakers James P. O'Donnell and Sons.

LEGISLATORS LOCKED IN

Speaker Keeps Quorum for Governor's Amendment—Necessaries Board Stays

BOSTON, May 1.—The Massachusetts general court remained in session until 5:30 yesterday afternoon in order that the commission of the necessities of life might not pass out of existence at midnight last night. Legislation was finally adopted to provide that the commission's existence extended until May 1, 1925. This action was a concession to Gov. Fox, who opposed continuing the commission until May 1, 1925, to which date it was to run under provisions of a bill enacted earlier this week by both branches.

Gov. Fox considered that bill for 24 hours and yesterday sent a message recommending the bill be amended by reducing the extended term from four years to one year. It was necessary the senate act without delay as the commission would otherwise pass out at midnight.

The senate adopted the governor's recommendation and amended the bill. It also added an amendment the effect of which was to have the bill become operative today in order that the commission's work might not be interrupted.

SAYS WHEELER PROMISED TO HANDLE LAND CASES

WASHINGTON, May 1.—The special senate committee investigating the indictment of Senator Wheeler in Montana was told today that Mr. Wheeler had promised when he came to Washington to take care of the land parcels in which his client, Gordon Campbell, was interested.

W. W. Rhea, a Colorado oil man, testified that he heard such an assurance given to Campbell in January, 1923, and that Campbell had told him Wheeler was to be paid for it. The Montana indictment charged that the senator took a fee for appearing before the interior department in the matter.

Under a severe cross examination, the witness stuck to his story but said he first had made these statements within ten minutes after he had met Blair Conn, sent to Montana by Secretary Lockwood of the republican national committee although he did not know for what purpose Conn wanted the information.

Prior to Rhea's testimony the committee had received from Commissioner Story of the general land office a letter saying the files of his office indicated that Senator Wheeler ever had appeared as an attorney there in land matters.

day sufficiently to make this May day in Paris, one of the latest in recent years. Save for the almost complete cessation of taxicab service, throughout the day, a 10-minute noon day strike on the auto bus and trolley lines, and one-day walkouts in some of the small workshops the city presented much the same aspect as on Saturday of Holy Week.

Old Customs Revived

WASHINGTON, May 1.—The old custom of hanging May baskets in the early morning on May day, was revived at the White House today, when three small children hung a basket for Mrs. Coolidge on the north door of the executive mansion.

The children had fixed the basket to the door and were running down the steps of the portico when Mrs. Coolidge saw them and called them back to thank them for their greetings.

N. Y. Iron Workers Strike

NEW YORK, May 1.—More than 2000 iron workers went out on strike today, demanding a closed shop and a wage of $12 for eight hour day instead of $10.50.

Charles Murphy, business agent of the Manhattan Local of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, said all union construction in Manhattan, Brooklyn and northern New Jersey was stopped.

The strike marred what was expected to be a May day of complete industrial peace. Regardless of the comparatively quiet, the police took the usual precautions.

May Day Parades Banned

HAVANA, May 1.—Suspension of outdoor meetings and May day parades by the latest element and authorization by President Zayas of the purchase of $400,000 worth of arms and ammunition for the war department marked the government's steps today in connection with the outbreak of soldiers and civilians in Santa Clara province.

Repress continued to show that all parts of the republic were quiet except for the vicinity of Santa Clara city.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

H. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

The work of the Four Diamonds, at the H. F. Keith this week is characterized by unusual snap and evidences of a positive delight on the part of the performers. The dancing is wonderfully snappy. There are several other good things on this bill, and Chain Archer, with their peppy conversation, contribute much to the gaiety of the program. Charles O'Donnell in "The Piano Tuner" is also a star performer. Watts and Hawley in fun and music are right up to the standard. Brown and Lavelle and the Flying Henrys contribute sizzling acts. The picture feature is "The Barefoot Boy."

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

George Melford's latest production for Paramount, "The Dawn of Tomorrow," now playing at the Merrimack Square Theatre is a story of London, its slums and high society. Jacqueline Logan and David Torrence play the leading roles and they are ably supported by Raymond Griffith. The other feature attraction of the current program is "On Time," Richard Talmadge's riot of thrills, with such able supporting players as Bill Dove, Stuart Holmes and Tom Wilson. It's a supremely thrilling and bolsterously funny photoplay with Talmadge, the dare-devil performer, in one of the best roles of his career.

There is the usual excellent surrounding program, including a comedy and the latest International News.

Continuing Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday: "If Winter Comes."

RIALTO THEATRE

Still packing 'em in! That's "North of Hudson Bay," which is now playing at the Rialto theatre and where it will be shown for the remainder of the week. Never before in the history of Lowell show business has a picture done the record-breaking business that "North of Hudson Bay" is now doing at the Rialto. It establishes one certain fact, that Tom Mix is the greatest drawing in pictures. Everybody likes him, young or old, rich and poor, just because he's human and is quick on the draw, and in "North of Hudson Bay" he has the greatest role of his long and varied career. See this picture!

The "Haunted Valley" Val-ley is now serial with Ruth Roland will be shown on the same bill today, Friday and Saturday, with four acts of vaudeville in addition on Friday night.

THE STRAND

It is not often that pleasure seekers are rewarded with such thorough entertainment as is guaranteed by "Forbidden Paradise," the burlesque story of Paris. The story is from the pen of Robert W. Service, who lived in Monte Carlo for many years, and was inspired to transfer his impressions of this famous gambling resort into a story, through which he weaves a delightful romance. His impressions are so faithfully recorded that the publication of the book is forbidden abroad, but its vogue in this country insured its use as picture material and the results obtained.

My Experience is that
DR. CALDWELL'S
SYRUP PEPSIN
Is just what you need

This Will Make Digestion Easy

WHAT the dyspeptic needs is not soda and charcoal and breath perfumes but a medicine that will help his bowels to move regularly, for dyspepsia and constipation are allied. If you will take Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin systematically as the directions on the package call for you will soon digest your food properly and pass it out normally, and heartburn, belching, dizziness, nervousness and bloating will vanish. In time you can dispense with all medicines as Syrup Pepsin will have exercised the intestinal and stomach muscles so they act for themselves. Mr. Lewis F. Schultz of Reasnor, Ia., Mrs. Victor Knodler of 3625 Bank St., Louisville, Ky., and hosts of others will verify this.

coated tongue, offensive breath, headaches and such ailments that indicate deranged stomach and bowels. Many serious diseases are prevented by this timely aid.

Formula Plainly Stated

Have no hesitancy giving Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin to any one young or old. It is a mild, gentle laxative free from narcotics. It will not cramp or gripe. The formula is on the package, a compound of Egyptian senna with pepsin and simple aromatics. A bottle can be had at any drug store and averages less than a cent a dose. Economical for families and fully guaranteed. You will find it a great improvement in taste and action over castor oil, or "candy cathartics" made from coal-tar that cause skin diseases, colic that loosens the teeth, salts in water or powder that concentrate the blood and dry the skin.

World Acclaims Success

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the prescription of a well-known physician of that name who practiced successfully for 47 years. It has been on the market thirty years and is today the largest selling liquid laxative in the world. Thousands of families have it in their medicine chest ready when any members show signs of dyspepsia, constipation, torpid liver, sour stomach, biliousness.

trained justified the care which the producers took with it. "Poisoned Paradise" is a drama of the Frenchman and his works seldom, if ever, touched upon before, either by historians or writers. The story has fascinating romance, thrills aplenty and characterizations that compare with the very best ever screened.

In addition to the above two big offerings, there will be a comedy and weekly, as well as musical numbers of merit.

street was chosen.

dents of the Highlands section to realize that it cannot exist without their support. Unless a sufficient number of stamps, money orders, envelopes, and other postal matter is sold at the station to support it, the postmaster-general will very likely order it closed, unless closed it is very doubtful if it would acquire a name. The station, said postmaster DeGale, is for the people of the Highlands and if they want it to stay there they must patronize it steadily.

Lowell has seen a tremendous growth in its postal business in the last few years. The totals revenue last year being slightly less than $100,000, establishing a new record. Postal facilities have also been greatly increased recently. The establishment of the Middle street postal station, to serve the business section of the city, was the first step. The second step was the opening of the Centralville station last September and the final step the opening of the Highlands station this morning. In addition to the establishment of the district postal stations the main postoffice building space was greatly enlarged by the erection of a second floor and at the present time the local postoffice is one of the most efficient in the country.

BIGELOW-HARTFORD NO. 3 MILL
SOLD TO LOCAL AUTO AGENCY

Prince-McCann Co. Purchaser of Property With Market Street Frontage, Assessed at $60,000—To Be Used for Service and Parts Department

One of the most important real estate transfers involving property in the business section of the city this year, was completed today when final papers were passed here transferring ownership of the former property of the Bigelow-Hartford Corporation in Market street known as Mill No. 3. The grantees in this transaction was J. Murry Howe of Boston and the buyer the Prince-McCann company of this city. The transfer was made through the office of Thomas H. Elliott company, real estate dealers of this city, and the assessed value of the property involved is $60,000.

No. 3 mill of the former Bigelow-Hartford corporation is located immediately facing upon a large open lot next to the police station in Market street. It is one of the large mills formerly used in the manufacture of carpets and is of mill construction throughout. Its location, directly opposite the present Prince-McCann office and salesroom, is considered ideal by the purchasers.

The Prince-McCann company is the local agent for Studebaker cars. Mark J. McCann, founder of the business, started twelve years ago in a small store in Gorham street selling bicycles. As motor vehicles became more numerous he engaged in the sale of motorcycles and side-cars. The logical step into the automobile business came in 1914 when he moved to the City Hall garage, there selling the Maxwell and Vello cars.

Five years ago he took over the Studebaker agency and has built up one of the finest selling organizations in the city. Among his employees who have been with the company during its growth are Harry Gallagher, employed with Mr. McCann for 11 years; Leroy Spaulding, for four years a successful Studebaker salesman; Herbert Fallows, service manager for three years; and Miss Marie Roy, office manager for three years.

Last year, Arthur D. Prince became interested in the automobile business and, having been owner of a Studebaker for three years, investigated the possibility of joining with Mr. McCann, and finally purchased an interest in the company. With his entry into the business, it naturally branched out considerably and became one of the largest automobile sales companies in this district.

The building purchased today will be used exclusively for service and parts departments. The paint shop, used and new car salesrooms, will be located as at present, in the large building at 165 Market street.

Sun and Wind Bring Out Ugly Spots. How to Remove Easily.

Here's a chance, Miss Freckle-face, to try a remedy for freckles with the guarantee of a reliable concern that it will not cost you a penny unless it removes the freckles; while if it does give you a clear complexion the expense is trifling.

Simply get an ounce of Othine—double strength—from any druggist and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of the homely freckles and get a beautiful complexion. Rarely is more than one ounce needed for the worst case.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength Othine as this strength is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles. —Adv.

| ¾ cup shortening         | 1 teaspoon vanilla or grated |
| 2 cups sugar             | rind of 1 lemon              |
| ½ cup milk               | 4 cups flour                 |
| 2 eggs                   | 3 teaspoons Cleveland's      |
| ¼ teaspoon grated nutmeg | Baking Powder                |

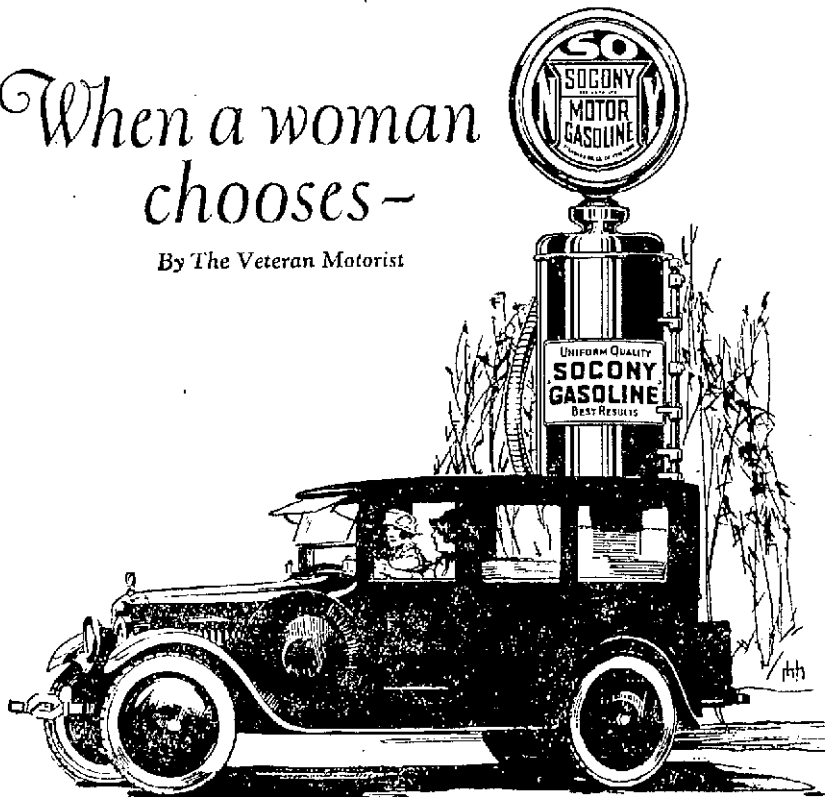

Cream shortening and sugar together; add milk to beaten eggs and beat again; add slowly to creamed shortening and sugar; add flavoring; add 2 cups flour sifted with baking powder and nutmeg; add enough more flour to roll easily. Roll out very thin on floured board; cut with cookie cutter; sprinkle with sugar; put a raisin or a piece of walnut in the center of each. Bake about 12 minutes in hot oven (350°). If dough is chilled before using it will be easier to handle.

This recipe makes about 6 dozen cookies.

When a woman
chooses—

By The Veteran Motorist

THE other day I had occasion to take the Boston Post Road, bound for Hartford, Springfield, and on to Maine, to spend a few days with the family. In the course of the journey, I stopped perhaps half a dozen times, to fill up with Socony Gasoline, and once to ask my way after dark.

As is my custom, I always stop and chin a bit with those genial boys, who invariably are found dispensing Socony products. On this occasion, as many others, I noted the frequency with which women drivers stop at Socony stations, and the invariable courteous and quick service which they receive from employees. As one of the boys put it, "A woman knows what she wants, and we always see that she gets it."

A discriminating woman always buys Socony Gasoline.

LAST PHASE OF SENATE OIL INVESTIGATION

WASHINGTON, May 1.—The senate oil committee for the first time in its inquiry into the leasing of the naval reserves took up in detail today the situation in reserve No. 2 on Buena Vista hills in California.

Assistant Secretary Finney of the interior department and Director H. H. Foster of the bureau of mines, were called for questioning in what committee members said was the last phase of the long investigation.

Mr. Finney gave to the committee a complete list of all leases made on the Buena Vista reserve and reviewed the history of each. This reserve is known as the "checkerboard" reserve, because the lands held for the navy were in most instances alternating segments with the intervening sections under private control.

Brake Beam Tourist In Police Court

melled away in all directions before long and left the wanderer who is the hero of this story along on a trail due east.

A bit rusty and dusty, with rumpled hair and sand-dusted cheeks, clothes half-worn out and shoes dilapidated, the wanderer (twins—Frank Tuohy, 18 and Freddie Hayden, 19—were ordered out of a Boston & Maine boxcar in the south yards early last evening by Special Officers Symonds and Graves, escorted to police headquarters and given warm meals and hot beds for the night. The charges were "suspicious persons" and "unlawfully riding on the Boston & Maine railroad."

Officer Symonds brought Joseph Babinch, 19, also a member of the same traveling party on the Boston-Lowell run, but Joe was released without being brought into court.

Before district court this morning, Tuohy and Hayden appeared entirely at ease and not at all disturbed by their arraignment before Judge John J. Pickman, who presided in the afternoon.

Hayden told the police authorities that he was born in Goldfield, Nev. His father once ran a mine and made good. When five years of age, the family moved to Worcester, where Hayden has many acquaintances, he says. Hayden expects some day to go to Goldfield again. He has heard of another boom in one district not far removed from dad's old claim, and it looks promising. Only dad and ma will be notified the next time he skips away from home and high school.

In police court this morning Judge Pickman talked to the boys like a father, found that they were not telling wrong stories, had a sheet of letters in their pockets from their mothers and fathers to prove who they were, etc., etc. The judge gave them a little fatherly advice and the wanderers had appeared to be grateful. Sentences were suspended and the youths were told to leave Lowell and go back to their homes. They promised faithfully to do so and received letters that will help them on their way.

FIND KIDNAPPED GIRL IN METHUEN

Search Ends at Camp—Five Men, One Her Cousin, Arrested

One of Most Sensational Kidnappings in Recent Years

LAWRENCE, May 1.—One of the most sensational kidnappings cases which has occurred in this city in recent years resulted last night in the arrest of five residents of Lawrence, each of whom is held in $5000 bonds for his appearance in the local district court today.

The kidnapped girl, Agatina Cavallaro, aged 17, of West Andover, was found late yesterday afternoon at a camp in Pleasant Valley section of Methuen and taken back to her home.

The defendants in this case are Sam Buffalo of 26½ Common street and Mario Testa of Oak street, both charged with kidnapping; Carmelo Cavallaro of 30 North st., West Andover, charged with kidnapping, assault upon Agatina Cavallaro—his cousin—and with carrying a loaded revolver; and Giustino Bruno and Joseph Cammarato, charged with being accessories, both before and after the fact, to the kidnapping.

Police Message Sent

At 10:30 yesterday morning, Agatina Cavallaro of West Andover and her 18-year-old sister, Josephine Cavallaro, both of whom are employed at the

Ayer mills in this city, received a telephone call to the effect that their mother was dangerously ill and that they must come home at once.

Never once doubting the genuineness of the message, the two girls obtained leave and hastened from the factory, hurrying up Union street in the direction of Essex street, to get a street car for Andover. When they were just in front of the Lawrence Dye company's store on Union street, an automobile, with three men inside, drew up at the curb beside them and two of the men jumped out, grabbing Agatina, throwing her into the car and driving off, all in the space of a few seconds, heading in the direction of Methuen.

Her sister Josephine screamed for help. She was taken to the Lawrence police station, where she related the story of what had just occurred. Mr. Torrey Officer, William T. Dove, was at once dispatched to the Pleasant Valley section of Methuen.

Spot Automobile

Upon arriving there, Dove saw an automobile answering the description furnished by the frantic girl, and promptly stopped it at the point of his revolver. Buffalo and Testa were inside and he hid them under cover of his revolver while police aid was summoned by bystanders.

The two men, whom he immediately placed under arrest on a kidnapping charge, admitted being inside the car when the girl was kidnapped, though denying any specific guilt in the matter. Both of their faces were scratched and their clothing was torn, as if from a struggle.

The pair was taken to the Lawrence police station, where they admitted that the Cavallaro girl and a third man—whose name they would not tell—were then somewhere in Pleasant Valley, though they refused to give the address.

A quick trip to the valley in question was made by City Marshal Fred A. Hilton, Jr., Lieut. Daniel W. Dwyer, Inspector Charles H. Woodcock, Serat, Patrick J. Morrissey—all of the Lawrence police department—and Chief of Police James W. Riley of Methuen, but the search was without results.

The group went on to Salisbury Beach, with equally fruitless results. Returning late in the afternoon to Pleasant Valley, they decided to visit a certain camp there, the property of Bruno, which had been under suspicion of late.

Search Ends

Surrounding the camp, they found the girl, Agatina Cavallaro, and two men, her cousin, Carmelo Cavallaro, and Giustino Bruno, owner of the property.

According to the story which the police say the girl told them, she was kidnapped on the streets of Lawrence by her cousin, Buffalo and Testa, who took her to the camp in question, when Buffalo and Testa left, only to be arrested a few minutes later. Once alone with her, the girl said, her cousin insisted that she must marry him or else he would commit suicide by shooting.

She refused to do so, according to her own statement, and then he drew his revolver and placed it at his own head. Rather than have him shoot himself, the girl said she agreed to yield to his wish. Some time afterwards Bruno, the owner of the camp, came in and informed Cavallaro of the arrest of Buffalo and Testa, suggesting that the only way out of a bad scrape was for the couple to get married the following day. At this point the police entered.

Heid For Grand Jury

LAWRENCE, May 1.—Five local Italians were held in district court today for the grand jury in connection with the kidnapping yesterday of Agatina Cavallaro, 17, of West Andover, who was called from her work in a local mill on the pretext that her mother was seriously ill.

Carmelo Cavallaro, a cousin of the girl, was held in $5000 bonds on a kidnapping charge and $3000 additional, on a statutory charge. Sam Buffalo and Mario Testa were held in $5000 each for kidnapping and an additional $1500 was demanded from Testa on a charge of breaking and entering for which he had been wanted for some time. Giustino Bruno and Joseph Cammarato, charged with being accessories to the fact of kidnapping, were held in $5000 bonds each.

KEYNOTE SPEECHES

All of the defendants pleaded not guilty.

Mayor Presages Reduction In Local Trolley Fares

Consider your request, and if possible, grant the same."

"Things are pretty dull here as we know," said the mayor this morning in discussing the matter. "When the mills get running again on better schedules and with more workers, the passenger traffic is bound to pick up. I shall watch for developments and repeat my request as soon as I feel it is warranted. I see no reason why we cannot look forward to cheaper car fares and an very much pleased with the attitude of the company of locals. Mr. McCormick has co-operated with us to a great extent in seeing our case to his trustees and their letter stipulated me as a fair and reasonable statement."

The letter to the mayor follows: "Dear Mr. Mayor: "We beg to acknowledge your request of April 22nd, through Mr. McCormick, our local manager, for a reduction in the rate of car fares in the Lowell district.

"The Lowell district for the twelve months ending December 31, 1923 just barely earned the cost of service, having a surplus of only $129.21 at the close of the year. The passenger revenue for the first quarter of 1924 in Lowell is $28,570.00 less than the first quarter of 1923. Revenue for April is falling off at the rate of $11,000.00 per month, and because of the extremely bad industrial conditions and the increasing use of automobiles, this decrease in revenue is very likely to continue for several months.

Operating expenses are at a maximum because of the large amount of track construction, and with the present decrease in passenger revenue we are facing a deficit of at least $50,000 for the rest of the year with present rate of fare, which is 16 rides for $1.00. If the fares in Lowell are reduced by increasing the number of rides to 17 for $1.00, it would make a further decrease in our revenue of approximately $42,000.00 per year.

"Charged with the duty of operating the street railway system so that transportation may be furnished at cost to the communities which we serve, we cannot reduce fares when it is known that the reduction will result in the railway being operated at a loss.

"When industrial conditions are restored to somewhere near normal, we will be very glad to again consider your request, and, if possible, grant the same.

"Very truly yours,

SPRINGFIELD PUTS BAN ON JITNEYS

SPRINGFIELD, May 1.—After a lengthy session yesterday, the transportation board of the city council voted to ban jitneys. This decision was made notwithstanding that a campaign to test sentiment showed 25,000 voters to be in favor of busses.

There were sharp clashes in the conference between Richard J. Talbot, counsel for the bus owners' association, and Mayor Leonard.

The jitneys ceased running legally last night by order of the authorities. Although the busses are banned as licensed vehicles, the jitney men will make another effort for reconsideration.

The vehicles will continue to run, but will make no charge until Monday night, at least, when the bus owners will try to have the city council go on record as favoring a referendum vote on the question of whether the busses should be allowed to operate.

CAN'T BEAT "TIZ" WHEN FEET HURT

Just take your shoes off and then put those weary, shoe-crinkled, aching, burning, corn-pestered, bunion, tortured feet of yours in a "Tiz" bath. Your toes will wriggle with joy; they'll look up at you and almost talk and then they'll take another dive in that "Tiz" bath.

When your feet feel like lumps of lead—all tired out—just try "Tiz." It's grand—it's glorious. Your feet will dance with joy; also, you will find all pain gone from corns, callouses and bunions.

There's nothing like "Tiz." It's the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous excretions which puff up your feet and cause foot torture. A few cents buys a box of "Tiz" at any drug or department store—don't wait. Ah! how glad your feet get; how comfortable your shoes feel—Ad.

REUNION WITH ROME DISCUSSED

Possibility of Reunion of Anglican Catholic and Roman Catholic Faiths

Subject of Discussion at Convention of Protestant Episcopal Priests

PHILADELPHIA, May 1.—Possibility of the reunion of the Anglican Catholic and Roman Catholic faiths, separated since the time of Henry VIII, was voiced here last night, at the convention of Protestant Episcopal priests. The meeting closed today with a high mass at St. Clement's church.

The Rev. Dr. Joseph G. H. Berry, rector of the church of St. Mary the Virgin, New York, advanced three bases on which a reunion might be sought, while Bishop Irving P. Johnson, of Colorado emphasized the fact that Anglicans and Romans have the same sacraments, creeds, scriptures and history. The Rev. Mr. George Craig Stewart, rector of St. Luke's church, Evansville, Ind., deplored the divisions in the church as "a scandal and a sin," and discussed the problem of reunion.

Bishop Thomas F. Gailor, president of the National council of the Episcopal church, urged loyalty "as good Catholics" to the Episcopal communion.

Dr. Berry advanced three points on which he said a reunion with Rome might be reached:

1—Concurrence in the belief that Christ conferred primacy upon St. Peter and the bishops of Rome succeeding him.

2—Agreement that church jurisdiction should be allocated to the pope.

3—Belief in "an infallibility which is the mind of the church through the pope as its organ of statement and which is authenticated by its recognition by the whole church."

"THE PARISH PRIEST" PRESENTED BY ALTISSIMA DRAMATIC CLUB

Capable Presentation of Delightful Drama by People of St. Andrew's Church at Thomas Talbot Memorial Hall in North Billerica

KATHERINE A. CONDON

MARY A. MCCARTHY

Under the capable direction of James H. Cannon of North Billerica and Thomas J. Heane of Lowell, "The Parish Priest," a delightful three-act drama, was last night successfully presented in Thomas Talbot Memorial Hall, North Billerica, by the Altissima Dramatic Club of St. Andrew's church.

The play will be presented for the second time this evening.

"The Parish Priest" marked the second annual dramatic triumph for the young members of the Altissima society. "My Irish Rose," having witnessed a similar interpretation by members of the same organization some months ago. Talbot hall was filled to capacity with an audience made up of amateur theatrical lovers from the Billerica, Lowell and other cities and towns, for the ability of the Altissima representatives had been popularly acclaimed within a horse radius. Among those who attended the initial production last evening it was the consensus of opinion that "The Parish Priest" never witnessed a more remarkable offering than "The Parish Priest" and its characterization by the prospering theatrical organization of St. Andrew's.

With consummate art, the male and female characters portrayed their roles in a highly talented manner, emphasizing a strict attention to detail and impersonating the several characters with such ability and reality that the audience had no difficulty in seeing in imagination the lesson intended by the author who inspired the famous play.

As the parish priest, Thomas H. Barton was excellent and he upheld the leading role in distinctively professional style. Others who contributed materially to the success of the show were Miss Mary A. McCarthy, Miss Katherine A. Condon, Miss Helen Hayes, Roland Conway, W. Edward Cannon, Miles J. Finnegan, John Maxwell and Howard Conway. All were exceptionally good and lived their respective parts to the evident satisfaction of the admiring audience.

Between the acts Misses Evelyn and Katherine Kearney rendered several pleasing piano and violin duets, while solo selections were given by Thomas J. Condon. The stage manager was William C. O'Connell, and the accompanist, Miss Ella Harg.

The ushers were Nell R. Mahoney.

URGE MODIFICATION OF PROHIBITION LAWS

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Proponents of American participation in the world court, massed here to lay their arguments before the senate foreign relations sub-committee authorized to take evidence on the question continued to present their views at today's sessions of the hearing.

The advocates who have joined forces to advance their case, made way for the women's organizations favoring the court at the morning session, having selected Miss Jane Addams of Chicago and Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt of New York as the general spokesmen for this part of the hearing. Memorials and brief statements by representatives of the 11 organizations forming the women's world court committee also were placed before the sub-committee. Representatives of the American Federation of Labor were allotted time to present their views at an afternoon session, together with other advocates. Many also planned to appear at a night meeting, three sessions daily having been arranged by Chairman Pepper to accommodate the large number of proponents desiring to be heard.

Representatives of church, industrial, bar and educational organizations here were heard at the opening hearings yesterday and last night.

URIC ACID

Does NOT Cause Rheumatism!

Furthermore, I claim that Uric Acid is a NATURAL and NECESSARY constituent of the blood—that it is found in the body of every new-born babe; that without it we could not live; Strains statement? Yes—to you perhaps, because you have always been told differently.

But my book, "The Inner Mysteries of Rheumatism," just published, tells you the real truth about Rheumatism; tells what actually DOES cause it and how it is now being successfully treated in all its different forms and stages by entirely new, advanced scientific methods.

The writing of this unusual book is the result of my twenty years' study, experimentation and research in the disease and I want every sufferer of RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, SCIATICA, GOUT, etc., to read it. Therefore, although valuable, I will gladly send you complete copy only of the book absolutely free if you will send your address or that of any sufferer you may know, plainly written to:

MATRIMONIAL

Hilston A. Tweedie of Bangor, Me., and Miss Mildred E. Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Thomas of Pleasant street, Bangor, were married in St. Anne's chapel yesterday morning by Rev. Appleton Gramis, rector. The couple was attended by George Emmott of Moody street and Miss Mary Sullivan of Bangor. The bride and groom, making their respective gifts of a set of gold cuff links and a diamond ring.

The groom is assistant to John Sullivan, window trimmer for the Cherry & Webb Co., and has lived here about five months. The couple left last night on a brief trip and will be at home to their friends at 25 Prescott street after May 15th.

Mrs. Tweedie was attired for the ceremony in a gown of white georgette crepe with a hat of the same shade. She carried a bouquet of white sweet peas. The bridesmaid's gown was of pink georgette crepe and she wore a hat to match and carried a bouquet of pink sweet peas.

Galvin—Dostaler

Mr. Michael Galvin of Cairo, Ill., and Miss Lowell Dostaler of this city were united in marriage at a nuptial mass celebrated at Notre Dame de Lourdes church yesterday morning by Rev. Louis Racine, O.M.I. Mr. Francis X. Dostaler and Mr. Joseph Dostaler attended the couple. The bride wore a gown of pink georgette crepe and carried a bouquet of white sweet peas. The groom wore a suit of gray and carried a boutonniere of white roses. The ceremony was held at the home of the bride's mother, following which Mr. and Mrs. Galvin left on an extended wedding trip to Washington, D.C., and New York. The ushers at the home were Messrs. Lou Dost, Raymond Dost and Charles Merrill. Present at the wedding were guests from South Braintree, Boston and Bridgewater, Conn.

Booth—Merrill

Mr. William T. Booth and Miss Agnes P. Merrill were united in the bonds of matrimony at St. Margaret's rectory yesterday by Rev. C. J. Galligan. The bride's gown was of white georgette crepe trimmed with lace. She wore a veil caught up with orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Frances Slattery, who attended the bride, wore a gown of pink georgette crepe with a hat to match. She carried roses. The bridesmaid wore blue georgette crepe trimmed with pink rosebuds and carried a bouquet filled with pink sweet peas. The ceremony was held at the home of the bride's mother, following which Mr. and Mrs. Booth left on an extended wedding trip to Washington, D.C., and New York. The ushers at the home were Messrs. Lou Dost, Raymond Dost and Charles Merrill. Present at the wedding were guests from South Braintree, Boston and Bridgewater, Conn.

Sir Louis resigned his portfolio in the cabinet in 1901 and was appointed to the supreme court bench. In 1915, he was appointed chief justice of Canada.

Says His Prescription

Has Powerful Influence Over Rheumatism

Mr. James H. Allen, of Rochester, N.Y., suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work. He finally decided, after years of fruitless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He proudly gave his discovery, which he called Allentide, to others who took it with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. He has therefore, instructed druggists everywhere to dispense Allentide with the understanding that if the first bottle does not show the way to complete recovery he will gladly return your money without comment. A. W. Dows & Co., can supply you.—Adv.

BIGGEST GERMAN VESSEL

Steamer Columbus Completes Her Maiden Voyage at New York Today

NEW YORK, May 1.—The steamer Columbus, largest vessel under the German flag, and sixth largest in the world, completes her maiden voyage when a fleet of tugs maneuvers her to dock today. She dropped anchor in quarantine last night.

The Columbus is 774 feet long, has a gross tonnage of 32,000 and cargo capacity of 10,000 tons. Accommodations are provided for 400 first class passengers, 600 second class, 500 steerage and a crew of 753 officers and men. She is a twin screw turbine driven, oil-burner, capable of a speed of 20 knots and flies the house flag of the North German Lloyd.

"LA DUSE" BEGINS HER LAST TOUR TODAY

NEW YORK, May 1.—"La Duse" begins her last tour today.

Born a strapping player to become one of the world's greatest, only to die in an alien land, Eleonora Duse's remains will be placed aboard a steamship to be transported to an Italian burial ground.

A requiem high mass for the repose of Miss Duse's soul will be chanted by three Dominican fathers in the Church of St. Vincent Ferrer, this morning, after which the body will be taken from its unpretentious sanctuary and driven through central park, where those who will may pay last tribute to the great tragedienne.

On her casket three wreaths will rest—one from the king of Italy, a second from Premier Mussolini and a third placed there by her daughter. At the head of the cortege will ride Prince Caudani, Italian ambassador at Washington. The procession will end at a North River pier, where the body will be placed aboard the steamship Dullio, to sail later in the day for Genoa. Twenty members of the tragedienne's company, who were with her when she died in Pittsburgh, will accompany the body overseas.

MIDDLESEX NORTH POMONA GRANGE

Middlesex North Pomona Grangers will meet again in Fellowship hall, Centralville, on Friday, May 2, for the purpose of receiving past masters and also the worthy lecturer of the Massachusetts state grange, Charles Wright of Burlington will direct the day's sessions and Burlington grangers will provide the noon dinner. This will be the last Pomona meeting until next September.

In the afternoon, starting at 2 p. m. there will be a musical program arranged by Julius Weissenor, director, who will be assisted by Miss Mabel Shaw, Miss Sally Healy, Joseph Lawrence and Little Vincent Lavatta, talented pupils of Mr. Weissenor. Moving pictures, showing the advantage of water supply system in country homes, will be shown during the afternoon. Fred B. Goldthwaite of Boston will be the lecturer.

STREET CAR SERVICE

Through street car service on the Varum avenue, Pawtucketville and Moody street lines was resumed at 6:12 o'clock last evening and the shuttle cars which have been operating from Warthen street to the end of the above mentioned lines since Sunday's fire, were taken off. The front wall of Associate building was pulled down yesterday afternoon and car service was resumed as soon as the brick and debris which fell in Merrimack street, was removed.

CARRIED NEWS BACK TO TEXAS

Of His Discovery in Maine of the Fruit Treatment

This is the way people find out about the wonders of the new Fruit Treatment. Someone tries it and gets well. Others are told—they try it and tell others—which accounts for the steadily growing demand for "Fruit-a-lives," made of the intensified juices of apples, oranges, figs and prunes with tangles. Here is how the gentleman from Houston, Texas, learned of "Fruit-a-lives."

"Some time ago, while in Portland, Maine, I was suffering from indigestion, Nervousness and insomnia. A friend there gave me some 'Fruit-a-lives.' Continued treatment made me feel so much better that I wish everyone to know 'Fruit-a-lives' as I did—no other treatment ever did me so much good."—S. J. Mitchell.

Cost of Beauty

My Cost, $100,000—Yours, 50c a Week
By Edna Wallace Hopper

My quest of beauty cost me and me at least $100,000. We searched the world to get the best that science had to offer.

But those helps made me famous as a beauty. And they have kept me a youthful beauty to my grand old age.

Now I want others to enjoy those same helps. I have arranged so all may get them. Any girl or woman may use all my helps at a cost not over 50c per week.

White Youth Clay

My skin is like a baby's, yet mine is a grandmother's age. I owe that largely to a superclay which France created for me.

Not like the crude and muddy clays so many still employ. This clay is white, refined and delicate. It is based on 20 years of scientific study. No-old-time clay brings comparable results. I call this my White Youth Clay. It purges the skin of all that clogs it—the causes of blackheads and blemishes. It brings that rosy afterglow which so amazes and delights. It combats all lines and wrinkles, reduces enlarged pores.

How it multiplies beauty, how it keeps youthful bloom, is shown by my complexion. No girl or woman can afford to go without it. The cost is 50c and 75c.

Two Master Creams

My Facial Youth is a liquid cleanser which I also found in France. Great beauty experts the world over now employ it, but they charge too much. It contains no animal, no vegetable fat. The skin cannot absorb it. It simply cleans to the depths, then departs. All the dirt, oil, grime and dead skin come out with it. One never knows what a clean skin means until she cleans it this way. My Facial Youth costs 75c.

My Youth Cream is my cold cream—another French creation. It contains products of both lemon and strawberry. Also all the best that science knows to foster the skin texture. I use it at a night cream, also fastidious as a powder base. Every hour I keep my skin protected by it. This matchless cream—my Youth Cream—costs you 60c per jar.

My Hair Youth

My hair is my greatest glory. It is silky, lustrous, luxurious, and grows finer every year. Dandruff, falling hair and gray hair are unknown to me.

This hair which millions envy is due to my Hair Youth. I apply it with an eye dropper, directly to the scalp. There it combats hardened oil and dandruff, which stifle the hair roots. It stimulates and fertilizes. Then hair thrives just as flowers thrive in a well-kept garden. One minute a day does all this. My Hair Youth with eye-dropper costs 50c and 75c.

All druggists and toilet counters now supply Edna Wallace Hopper's products. With each comes a guarantee. Experts tell me that these are the best helps in existence. I hope that what they did for me and mine will induce you to try them. Edna Wallace Hopper, 536 Lake Shore Drive, Chicago. —Adv.

SCHOOL STREET BRIDGE QUESTION

The question of whether the Locks and Canals Corp. has been freed of the responsibility of maintaining the superstructure of the School street bridge by virtue of the grade crossing commissioners' decree of several years ago, will be settled in superior court in East Cambridge next Tuesday. The Boston & Maine has brought a petition to determine the liability for the upkeep of the structure. The city will be represented by Solicitor P. J. Reynolds.

HEBREW CANTORS IN PROGRAM OF INTEREST

Three well known Hebrew cantors presented an interesting program of Jewish religious music and old folk songs last evening before an appreciative audience in Liberty hall. The cantors were Isadore Adelsman, Isaac Glikstein and David Brodsky. Borris Brodsky was accompanist. The first part of the program consisted mainly of religious ritual, principally cast in minor mode, while for the second part there were song plaintive and humorous folk songs in the Yiddish. The audience seemed quick to grasp the significance of most of the numbers and sensed the fine voices of the cantors.

LOWELL EAGLES

At a meeting of Lowell Aerie, Fraternal Order of Eagles, Tuesday evening, 15 candidates were initiated and 20 applications referred to the membership committee. Arrangements for the annual election of officers at the next meeting were completed. The membership drive for the Thomas F. Quinn class will be concluded at the next meeting and all members are asked to report on or before that time.

VETERANS OF FOREIGN WARS

Two comrades of Walker-Rogers post, No. 662, V. of F. W., are reported ill and being cared for at St. John's hospital. James Manning is suffering from pneumonia; Carl Lambert is confined to his bed with a malady that needs careful treatment and good care. Both war veterans have a host of friends, who are visiting them daily and looking after their needs in a spirit of fraternity.

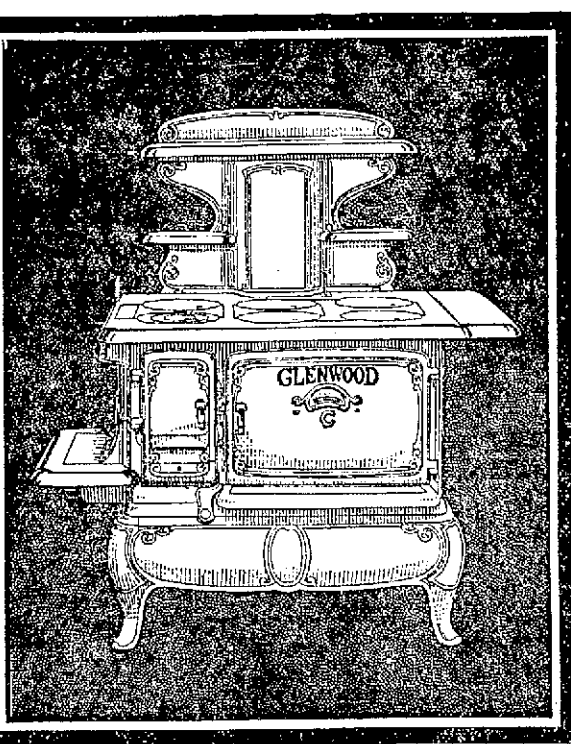

Middlesex county council, V. of F. W., held its regular meeting at Memorial hall, last Sunday afternoon, with President McNelis in the chair. The county is back of Comrade Eugene Carver for state commander and Comrade Elliot McDowell of Cambridge for senior vice-commander. Comrade Carver has been a tireless worker for the veterans' organization in this state, while Comrade McDowell, present chief of staff of the state encampment, has a similar record. Carver entered the World war as a private and was discharged a lieutenant. Comrade McDowell was one of the principal speakers at Memorial Auditorium, when the "Powder River" pictures of the late war were shown.

mitted on Memorial day: Chairman Chandler, Hotchkiss, Battersby, Kerrigan, Stone, Grouke and Vickers. There will be services conducted by the veterans on Central bridge in memory of soldiers and marines who died for their country. Comrade Grouke (chairman) Vickers, Stone & King served the refreshments last Sunday afternoon to visiting delegates of the Middlesex county council. Comrade William O. Stone commander of Lorraine post, of Haverhill, was a recent Lowell visitor, representing Essex county in the Veterans of Foreign Wars. He is in direct charge of the program calling for the annual convention of the veterans in Haverhill this season.

MARANVILLE'S DARING STEAL OF GIBBONS HAS HOME GIVES PIRATES VICTORY

Dashed in With Winning Run While Cub Pitcher Fondled Ball—Stock Signalizes Appearance in Dodger Uniform by Driving in Winning Runs

NEW YORK, May 1.—While a rookie pitcher fondled the ball on the pitcher's mound in the 11th inning with two down, "Stub" Maranville, Pirate shortstop, stole home with the run that gave Pittsburgh a 2 to 1 verdict over Chicago in the first of two meetings today. Maranville, who had not felt the danger of a home run since yesterday's April show, dashed in with a winning run while the Cubs pitcher, who had been fondled the ball, was still in the act of throwing it. Maranville's daring steal was the first of the season. He had stolen home in the 11th inning of the first game, but the Cubs pitcher, who had been fondled the ball, was still in the act of throwing it. ## ALUMNI FIELD TRACK PLANS DISCUSSED

James P. Conway, faculty athlete manager at the high school, George F. Hanger, coach of the track team, Assistant City Engineer Arthur Barrett, and Henry Tarbell, holder of the Andover track, conferred this morning in city hall.

The proposed new track at Alumni Field was the subject of their discussion and a tentative plan, calling for a track 140 yards in circumference, with four hundred foot curves and a 440 yard straightaway met with approval. It was decided to determine cost for construction of such a track as planned by them this morning. Mr. Tarbell agreed to go over the plans and submit a figure in the near future.

BARING POISON CASE

Miss Beau, School Teacher, to Appear and Tell Story of Friendship With Baring

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., May 1.—Miss Mildred Beau, school teacher, is expected to appear voluntarily at the office of Dist. Atty. Rowland within the next few days to tell the story of her friendship with Clarence C. Baring, now awaiting trial under indictment charging him with the attempted murder of his wife by putting poison and disease germs in her food, the district attorney said today. The prosecutor emphasized that no suspicion was attached to her.

South Carolina, 56.
Georgia, 12.
Alabama, 11.
North Carolina, 3.
Louisiana, 1.
Arkansas, 1.

With many points in the path of the storms yet completely isolated, reports of additional casualties were anticipated hourly.

Relief work is proceeding rapidly under the supervision of the American Red Cross, assisted by numerous local fraternal and civic organizations, municipal and county governments and individuals.

A picture of desolation and wreckage was left in the wake of the storms which traversed a path roughly estimated at more than a thousand miles long. Its destructive force, however, seemed partly spent as it swept eastward through Virginia last evening, no deaths having occurred there so far as known and but slight property damage being reported.

Dead and injured and many of those unhurt were picked up by the fierce winds and hurled hundreds of feet. Miles of telephone and telegraph lines were torn down, hundreds of dwellings and other buildings were ripped from their foundations and demolished, trees were uprooted and numbers of livestock were killed; white bridges were washed away and roads flooded in many sections by torrential rains which accompanied the storm.

Women and children make up a large part of the known dead.

COMMON SENSE

When a merchant advertises his wares in a newspaper, he does not appeal to the paper, but to its readers. He solicits the patronage of those readers whether he agrees with the policy of the paper or not.

To refrain from advertising in a paper of wide circulation simply because he does not agree with the editor on all public questions, is not using common sense. It is a form of business suicide. It has sent many short-sighted business men into bankruptcy. A dealer might as well put a sign over his store notifying all who do not think as he does that he does not want their patronage. Readers of newspaper advertisements know when and where their patronage is welcome.

Moyonhan commenced his duties at once at the request of the mayor in order that the department, which is one of the busiest at city hall, would continue to function normally.

Mr. Moyonhan, who lives at 19 Hampshire street, is a lifelong friend of the mayor and the appointment is in every sense a personal one. Born in Lowell, the new building inspector was graduated from Green grammar and the Lowell high schools. He has been in construction work for the past 15 years or more and has been particularly prominent as a master and journeyman plumber. He is a past president of the Lowell local of the Journeymen Plumbers' union.

He is a member of the Lowell Navy club and the American Legion, Lowell lodge, No. 87, I.O.O.F.s, the Master Plumbers association, the Contractors association, the Lowell Fish and Game club and Centralville East End Social club.

The oath was administered at 11.40 this morning by Mr. Flynn in the presence of Harry Gresham, secretary to the mayor. Mr. Connor, his predecessor, was among the first to congratulate him in his appointment and wish him success in his new office.

PARTICIPATION IN WORLD COURT

Hearing to Assemble Evidence on Proposal for American Entry Begun

Sub-Committee of Senate Foreign Relations Committee Holds Hearing

WASHINGTON, April 30.—A hearing to assemble evidence on the proposal for American participation in the world court, was begun today by a sub-committee of the senate foreign relations committee with advocates of the plan here from all parts of the country to present their arguments.

Chairman Pepper of the sub-committee, who will hear both proponents and opponents of the proposal, announced that he hoped to complete the public session within 10 days or two weeks. The proposals, representing religious, commercial, industrial, professional and women's organizations, who have united forces for presentation of arguments, were introduced at the opening session, three of which are planned daily for the first two days, at least. No recommendation is to be made by the sub-committee, which is authorized merely to take and report the evidence relating to the proposal.

Bishop Charles H. Brent of the Protestant Episcopal diocese of western New York, who with Dr. Sidney L. Gulick and George W. Wickesham of New York, formed the delegation representing the federal council of churches, was selected to present the opening statement in behalf of the advocates.

Julius Harris, president of the chamber of commerce of the United States, Mr. Wickesham, speaking on behalf of the American bar association, and President Lowell of Harvard, representing the world peace foundation, followed Bishop Brent on the opening program arranged by the proponents for co-ordination of the memorial on behalf of the federal council of churches and a number of church organizations, was held over until the afternoon session, which was devoted, under the program, to the religious representatives.

The memorial carrying the signatures of more than 100 church leaders as representatives of their denominations, Protestants, Catholics, Methodists, Presbyterians, Baptists and Episcopalians, and states that "the world court of justice is the result of many decades of American discussions, plans and desires for peace."

James H. McDonald of New York, chairman of the executive committee of the foreign policy association, acted as general chairman for the groups favoring the world court. In a brief address before introducing the speakers he emphasized that the proposal does not call for membership in the league of nations, and that it is "in line with the constant policy of our government ever since the question of international court became a matter of practical consideration a generation ago."

"It is significant," he said, "that practically all the American scholars and jurists who have studied the existing court have approved it. The court has already attained a position of confidence and power. It will take on new prestige and new moral power if the admission of the United States is now affected."

MRS. PETTY HELD FOR EXAMINATION

LOS ANGELES, April 30.—Mrs. Katherine Petty, sister of former Secretary of the Interior Fall, will appear for a hearing before the lunacy commission Monday. Meanwhile, she is held at the psychiatric ward of the general hospital here after her arrest at Santa Monica Monday night on a charge of carrying concealed weapons.

COUNCIL TO ACT ON ANNUAL ANNUITY

Councilman John W. ## SICK WOMAN MADE HAPPY

Entirely Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Mart, Texas.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to build me up as was all run-down, nervous and sick. I ached and hurt all over so that I was often compelled to go to bed, and I had to have most of my work done. No medicine seemed to help me until one of my neighbors who was taking the Vegetable Compound insisted on me trying a bottle of it. The medicine helped me from the first, and the best of all is that I can even sew again without that awful, nervous feeling I was used to having. And I used to take crying spells, with such a blue feeling that I cannot explain. Now all that has left me. I feel so cheerful, and I have gained in weight, sleep well and eat hearty. Oh! I wish I had words to express what this medicine has done for me! I am a housekeeper and do every thing from the sewing to the washing now and it doesn't hurt me. You may use my letter in any way you wish. I will be glad to help any suffering woman to the road of health and happiness."

JAPANESE TO MARRY AND RETURN BEFORE JULY 1

SAN FRANCISCO, April 30.—Hundreds of unmarried Japanese men, anxious to marry Japanese women and return to this country before the proposed immigration law becomes effective, July 1, are crowding all steamers sailing from here for the Orient, according to the San Francisco Examiner.

The Examiner says the Pacific Mail steamer President Wilson, which sailed yesterday for Japan, carried 100 Japanese and did not have accommodations for many other applicants.

Before departing Japanese residents of the United States must appear before the consul of their country and make written declaration of intention to return to America within a short time. Hundreds have made such declaration recently.

PRES. COOLIDGE INVITED TO DEPEW RECEPTION

WASHINGTON, April 30.—President Coolidge received an invitation today to join a group of prominent men in honoring Chauncey M. Depew at a dinner to be given him at Briarcliff Manor, N. Y., May 31, in recognition of his recent attainment of his 80th birthday.

The invitation was extended the president through Chauncey A. Taggart, former representative from New York, and Chauncey H. Depew Steele. Mr. Coolidge was unable to give a definite reply, but indicated that in event of inability to attend, he would send a message to be read at the dinner. Acceptances to invitations already have been received from Chief Justice Taft, Gen. Pershing and Edwin Root.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES

WASHINGTON, April 30.—Chairman Thompson of the federal trade commission was questioned by the Bankers' committee again today regarding anti-trust prosecutions which the trade commission sought to have the department of justice institute against lumber interests.

CAMBRIDGE, April 30.—Dr. Albert Crook, a Boston chiropractor and a member of the jury which convicted William J. Corcoran, J. Warren Kane and Theresa Durkan on blackmail charges, was a witness for the state today at the hearing on motions for a new trial.

SPARTANBURG, S. C., April 30.—Walnut Grove, a small town 13 miles south of Spartanburg, was struck by a tornado today and several persons were reported killed or injured.

ATTLEBORO, April 30.—Rev. Ellen Grant Gustaf, aged 95 years, third woman in America to be ordained in the ministry, a pastor for 15 years at West Mansfield, beginning in 1862, and a woman suffrage pioneer, died here at the home of her daughter, Dr. Laura V. G. Muckle.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—With indications pointing to an agreement by senate and house immigration bill conferees for postponement of the effective date of the Asiatic exclusion until Jan. 1, a renewal of the Japanese exclusion fight in the senate at least, appears certain.

NEWTON, April 30.—The state constabulary were engaged today in a search for an 18-year-old Dorothy Grant, who disappeared from her home in the Waban district of this city yesterday.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—The emergency foreign policy conference, composed of a group of senators and representatives and leaders of organized labor and of women's organizations, held its first meeting today in its effort to help to establish better international relations along liberal and progressive lines.

NEW YORK, April 30.—Harry Hoffman, motion picture operator, today pleaded not guilty in State Island court to an indictment charging him with first degree murder on the ground that he shot and killed Mrs. Claude Bauer. Hoffman was remanded to jail without bail.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—H. Foster Bain, director of the bureau of mines, was called today before the special district of Columbia grand jury which is inquiring into criminal charges resulting from the senate oil investigation.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—Employers of labor are not as a class opposed to modification of prohibition laws, William H. Stavon of Baltimore, president of the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment today told the house judiciary committee.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., April 30.—Mrs. Sarah Loring, who has charged her husband, Clarence O. Loring, with attempting to poison her and with hiding her disease germs, was under surveillance today to preclude the possibility of her leaving the state, thus halting the prosecution.

BOSTON, April 30.—If the Christian missionaries marriage is to endure it must justify itself "as on the whole the most satisfactory relationship possible between man and woman," said Katherine H. Davis of New York in an address before the Episcopal church congress today.

NEW YORK, April 30.—Plans have been completed by the Bethlehem Steel corporation for the sale of $50,000,000 additional 5 per cent. bonds, E. A. Grace, president of the corporation, announced today.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—The question of President Coolidge's attitude toward the bid of Henry Ford for Muscle Shoals, was again discussed today before the senate agriculture committee.

15,000 MINERS STRIKE
SCRANTON, Pa., April 30.—Approximately 15,000 anthracite mine workers employed in 11 counties of the Shenandoah coal field went on strike today because of the dismissal from the company's employ of an official of a union of Edwardsville, Pa.

MELLON'S PROPOSAL IS AGREED UPON

WASHINGTON, April 30.—Secretary Mellon's proposal for a 25 per cent reduction in the tax on earned income was agreed upon today by the senate with modification.

The maximum amount of income on which the reduction could be applied was cut to $10,000 from the $20,000 allowed by the house. All incomes of $5000 or less, however, would be considered earned for purposes of the reduction.

LOWELL AD CLUB REVISES ITS BY-LAWS

Edward J. Conney presided at the business meeting and luncheon of the Lowell Advertising club this noon in the Y.M.C.A. Revisions to the by-laws of the organization were adopted after some discussion. Members accepted an invitation from the Lowell Business and Professional Women's club to dine with them at Marie's restaurant tomorrow night.

Mr. Conney told of the proposed Ad club trip to London where he will attend the congress of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World as the Lowell delegate. Under the newly adopted by-law changes the club will be in the hands of a board of nine governors from which board the officers of the club are to be chosen.

SALMON RAGE AT LOWELL FISH HOOKS

A message from the salmon-fishing grounds in Maine, relayed to the Sun by Lee R. Smith, well known Lowell business man and lover of the spring outdoors when the fish are biting, announces excellent catches with the Smith hook and reel on Saturday and Sunday, last.

The biggest salmon weighed eight pounds, the next in the heavyweight division six pounds, while the Smith snapper in three that weighed four pounds each.

STATE ACTS IN MURDER CASE

PROVIDENCE, R. I., April 30.—State authorities today took voluntary action in the murder case of Little Clementine Cosmos, the East Providence child, whose mutilated body was found buried in a field in Lincoln, last Sunday, following her abduction on April 27.

The state board of public roads declared that they would devote every effort to running down the automobile in which the child was spirited away and immediately detailed two men to the work of hunting for automobiles answering the description of the abductor's car.

WORLD'S FAMOUS MILCH COW KILLED

SACRAMENTO, April 30.—Tillie Alcatraz, world famous milch cow, was shot and killed in Los Angeles yesterday after it was learned she was infected with the foot and mouth disease. Her owners recently refused $50,000 for the cow. One of her calves sold for $61,000 when only three months old.

ACTRESS SUES AUTO OWNER FOR $10,000

NEW YORK, April 30.—Injuries received in an automobile collision are made the basis for a suit for $10,000 brought by Grace George, actress, wife of William A. Brady, against Frank E. Rosen, owner of a car which collided with Miss George's motor last March. The actress was struck by fragments of flying glass and remained a prisoner in the car until rescued by passers by. The driver, David Winfield, Rosen's chauffeur, was arrested on charges of assault and of driving an automobile while drunk.

BACK SCRATCHER OF KING LOST

NEW YORK, April 30.—The back scratcher of a king, a rod of tortoise shell tipped with a diamond, was lost here today. Henry IV, who reigned in France from 1589 to 1610, got it as a gift from his sweetheart, Gabrielle d'Estrees. The loss of the curio became known when its owner, Suzanne Boiffard, advertised for it. The trinket was in a package which the young woman left in a taxicab. She said it was given to her by the wife of Hubert-Robert, French painter.

MAY ALLOW CARTER TO RETURN TO TUT'S TOMB

CAIRO, April 30.—The budget now before the Egyptian parliament provides 4,110 Egyptian pounds for next season's work in the tomb of Tut-Ankh-Amon, indicating the intention of the government to continue the explorations.

LONDON, April 30.—The Cairo correspondent of the Morning Post understands that the Egyptian government is still inclined to allow Howard Carter to complete his work in Tut-Ankh-Amon's tomb on condition that he acknowledges the authority of the government over the tomb and its contents.

The government, he adds, proposes to bear all cost in connection with the tomb henceforth and to permit no monopoly of the news concerning the discoveries made.

BOSTON NOT NEW YORK AIR MAIL TERMINUS

WASHINGTON, April 30.—Boston instead of New York would be the eastern terminus of the transcontinental air mail service under a bill introduced today by Representative Hallinger, republican, Massachusetts. He said the postoffice department had no objection to the change.

"SETTLERS' STONE" UNVEILED AT NEWPORT

NEWPORT, R. I., April 30.—The "settlers' stone" marking the landing place of the original settlers of Newport, will be unveiled today on "Costlers' Harbor Island. There in 1639 Nicholas Easton and his sons and followers set foot on land.

The stone with an attached bronze tablet commemorating the pioneers has been placed on the lawn in front of the east wing of the naval training station administration building on "Costlers' Harbor Island. Easton and his followers landed there, and spent one night, crossing the following day to the island of Rhode Island, where they established a settlement that later became the town and city of Newport.

The movement to mark the landing place with a monument was sponsored by Captain Frank Taylor Evans, U. S. N., commanding officer of the naval training station.

Jack Daw's Adventures. Chapter 6

Before Jack could explain that the monkey was hanging on to Flip, instead of Flip hanging onto the monkey, the monkey man turned and walked away. Jack then stooped down and patted Flip, who was still very much scared. "You'd better stay right here with me," advised Jack.

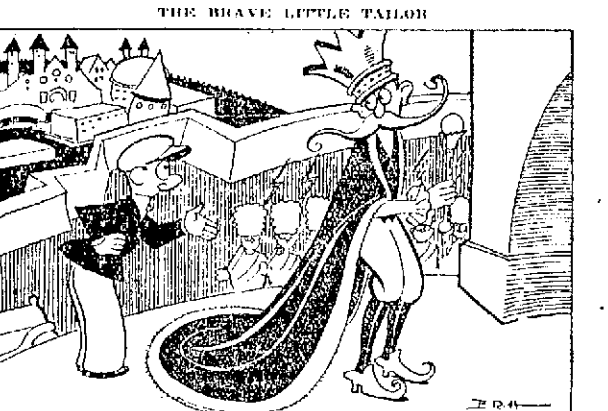

All of this time the work of putting up the tent and side-show places was going on. Jack marveled at how fast the men worked. He walked over to one of the smaller tents and asked if he could help spread the straw that was being used in the stalls where the ponies were standing.

"Don't need any help here," replied the man Jack had approached, "but maybe they'll let you carry water for the elephants down at the elephant tent." So Jack ran to the elephant tent. He looked around but couldn't find the entrance. So he peered underneath the tent. (Continued.)

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

by Olive Roberts Barton

"Where are we going now?" asked Nanny.

"The next station in Once-Upon-a-Time Land," said Mister Mugs. "It was where the Brave Little Tailor lives. He was the one who killed seven flies with one swat. He was so proud of himself he went out into the world to seek his fortune. Everywhere he went he boasted that he had killed seven at one blow, and every one thought he meant seven people. The king gave him three tasks to do, and when he succeeded in accomplishing them, the king gave him his daughter for a wife, and half of his kingdom."

Away they went over seven prairies and through seven gorges, and came at last to the Kingdom of the Brave Little Tailor.

Two castles stood on top of two hills, and running up and down the kingdom, dividing it straight into two equal parts, was a stone wall as high and as thick as the Great Wall of China.

"What's that for?" asked Mister Mugs of a beggar standing beside the road.

"That's a spite wall," answered the beggar. "When the king found out that the man who married his daughter was only a tailor instead of a mighty warrior, he got so mad that he had his army build the wall between the two halves of his kingdom. The tailor and his wife live in one castle and the king lives in the other."

"You don't say so?" cried Mister Mugs. "A pretty little girl, I tell you."

"Not fish, sir," replied the beggar. "That's really what made the king so mad. He found out that after all his boasting, his son-in-law had killed seven flies at one blow instead of seven people, as he supposed. Every time he hears something more about the way the tailor outwitted him, he has his army put another row of stones on top of the wall. It will soon be up to the sky."

"But, but," exclaimed Mister Mugs. "Nanny and I, we'll go and see this king and see if we can't fix things up. I always liked the Brave Little Tailor when I read about him. He was a merry fellow, and that's more than can be said for some people I know."

The little car went right up to the front door of the king's castle and at that minute the king stepped out to give an order to his army. "I've just heard something more about that tailor son-in-law of mine," he cried. "But an-

BUSINESS CONDITIONS

Improvement Noted in Certain Industries in New England Last Month

BOSTON, May 1.—The combination of poor weather and lessened confidence in the immediate outlook has produced the somewhat unsettled business conditions in New England, although in several important industries trade is satisfactory. Furthermore, some improvement was reported in April by certain industries which had previously complained of poor business. In New England as a whole, however, conditions in April approximately held their own, when compared with those of March. The volume of business of many of the more important industries, as well as retail trade, normally expands every spring. This year, too, business increased during March and April, as compared with January and February, but when a comparison of the relatively small increase this spring is made with that which ordinarily occurs, the present hesitation in business activity is more apparent.

Bank deposits are one of the important factors which showed an improvement in April of very nearly the usual proportion. The fact that commercial deposits of member banks in New England have increased during recent weeks, while the so-called "commercial" loans have declined, furnishes an excellent index of the character of the present situation. Commercial loans would undoubtedly not be liquidated coincidentally with an increase of commercial deposits. If inventories were unwieldy or there was much of an element of real estate in the business situation, when fundamental economic factors are working into a dangerous position, commercial loans of banks to their customers tend to increase rather than decrease, as they are doing at present.

The building industry is another important factor in the New England situation which showed the usual amount of seasonal expansion in operation between February and March. New construction especially residential, continues in large volume in this district.

Much of the recent contraction has been in the volume of new business and production, rather than in shipments of merchandise. Loadings of merchandise and miscellaneous freight in New England have not only increased steadily since the first of the year, but also have been larger than during the corresponding period of 1920.

One of the causes of the recent change in the attitude of business men has been the decline in commodity prices. When buyers for any reason hesitate to order merchandise, there is a tendency for commodity prices to decline, and this very decline, in regeneration, further hesitation. Some such process as this has been going on during recent weeks. However, fewer wholesale commodities declined in price during the first three weeks of April than during the preceding three weeks while a larger number increased during the first three weeks of April than in the previous three weeks. To be sure, there remained a net excess of wholesale price declines over advances in April, but apparently the reaction was losing in force rather than gaining.

The financial situation, as for months past, continues strong, and is one of the most important factors tending to stabilize the business situation.

NEW HIGHLANDS POSTAL STATION OPENS

The new Highlands postal station, marking another progressive step in the city's postal service, was formally opened this morning by Postmaster Xavier A. Delisle with simple ceremony, which consisted of the sale of a trict.

The new station is located at 89 Tor-

corner of Westford street, in the heart of the thickly settled Highlands residential district. It is similar to the Middle street station, being a "win-

KEY-WORKER ACTIVE
IN "ACRE" DISTRICT

The police have issued a warning, especially applicable to "Acre" residents, of a key-worker operating in that neighborhood. During the present week, three or four entries to lodging houses in the vicinity of Fletcher street have been made, and clothing and valuables taken. Capt. Petrie, Lieut. Maher, Serg. McLoughrey and Inspector Walsh have been investigating the break, but their work has been hampered in view of the fact that there is no description of the responsible party or parties available.

Explosions Heard Eight
Miles Away — Border
Guards Are Strengthened

IRELAND, May 1. (By the Associated Press).—Apparently in fear of a Free State raid the Irish Republicans in the County Monaghan salient, facing County Fermanagh, where they are in considerable strength, dumped their arms and explosives yesterday in a field last night and destroyed them. The explosions were heard eight miles away. The border guards have since been strengthened.

Barracks Attacked
IRELAND, May 1. (By the Associated Press).—The Killbucker barracks at Ballinasloe, County Dublin, were attacked and wrecked after a preliminary fusillade early today. The record books and the guards' bicycles and clothing were removed but the occupants of the barracks were not molested.

NO LOCAL INCREASE IN PRICE OF COAL

Despite the fact that operating and wholesale coal dealers have declared an advance of 19 cents in egg and run coal and 15 cents extra for stove coal, the same advance is to be made each month until September, the local coal dealers. It was stated today, will not increase their present rate. The May prices will be $16.50 on egg and broken sizes of coal, and $17 on stove and nu-sized, with 50 cents a ton discount for cash.

States That Spread of 10

Suggests Elimination of So-

to Attract Trade

The special state commission on the necessaries of life, in response to an order of the Massachusetts legislature in February, that the commission investigate the recent rises in the price of gasoline in the commonwealth, together with the causes therefor, and make such recommendations as in its opinion will remedy any abuses which might be found, has filed its report with the general court and states it is manifestly impossible for the commission to suggest a panacea for any evils which exist.

The commission points out that it has been allowed only six weeks' study of one of the greatest industries in the world and declares any suggestion for relief impossible.

The commission, however, submits
for consideration these suggestions:
Elimination of so-called free services
now given to attract trade; introduction of automatic self-service pumps, and the creation of large wholesale and retail stations in connection with ex-

DEMPSEY AND WILLS
TO FIGHT SEPT. 6

NEW YORK, May 1 (By the Asso-

today he had matched Jack Dempsey and Harry Wills for a world's heavyweight championship fight at Bayona
Thirty Acres, Jersey City, on Sept. 6.

So far as Wills is concerned, the match is contingent upon a victory over either Quinlan Romero, Italian, heavyweight, or Emlen Spiller, Italian, holder of the European heavyweight title, some time in June at the Jersey bowl, Richard said.

TALK ON GROWTH TURN FIRE HOSE
OF LOWELL ON COMMUNISTS

Samuel H. Thompson Speaker at Cotton Manufacturers' Convention

Traces Growth of Cotton
Textiles From Days of Francis Cabot Lowell

BOSTON, May 1.—If motor truck competition decreases the income of the railroads the shipper must foot the bill, declared Gerrit Fort, vice president of the Boston & Maine railroad, in an address to the members of the National Association of Cotton Manufacturers at their semi-annual meeting here today.

"If the truck is allowed to skim the cream of the profitable short haul business, railroad rates on the remaining traffic must of necessity be so considered as to make up the loss," Mr.
Fort said. "It is possible to deprive stockholders of any return on their investment, even to wipe out their entire investment, but someone must foot the bill, and that someone in the final analysis is the shipper."

Mr. Fort traced the cotton men to give the railroads their business. "To the greatest extent consistent with good methods."

For Increase of Tariff
A campaign to fight for an increase of the tariff on cotton goods was voted today. The resolution to keep out foreign produced cotton goods explains in its preamble that since the reduction of duty charges under the Underwood tariff bill of 1913, imports of cotton cloth have jumped from 200,000 to 200,000,000 square yards.

The association also adopted resolutions urging congress to exert its strongest economy in appropriations to order that it never might be lowered, and opposing the French Chamber bill for laboring fabrics to show their wool in cotton contents.

THE GROWTH OF LOWELL.
Mr. Samuel H. Thompson of Lowell addressed the convention this morning on the subject "The Community and the Industry," tracing at length the growth of the cotton textile in New England from the days of Francis Cabot Lowell to the present time. In many respects it was a story related from a new angle, bringing out the personal side of the history happen-

INTERPRETATION OF TENNIS AMATEUR

NEW YORK, May 1.—After the conditional acceptance by the United States Lawn Tennis association of the resignation from the Davis cup and Olympic teams of Vincent Richards who joined William T. Tilden in protest against the play-written rule, a storm cloud arose in the west which tennis enthusiasts hoped would hasten a revision of the rules. This cloud was in the form of news that Australia had taken the lead in organizing the strongest opposition possible to what will be a weakened American team in Tilden and Richards failed to play. Pressure is being brought to bear on officials of the tennis association according to one authoritative report, to have them formulate a clearer interpretation of an amateur. Australian rules committee met a similar situation by ruling that players might win by ruling that players might write, if they did not cable despatches during the progress of play. George W. Wrightman, of Boston, president of the U. S. L. T. A. returned home yesterday after a long conference with Richards in which it was said an agreement was reached that the latter's resignation would not be finally accepted until consideration by the Davis cup committee.

BILLIARD CHAMPIONSHIP

DETROIT, May 1.—Ralph Greenleaf of Philadelphia and Bennie Allen of Kansas City meet tonight to play off the tie for the world's pocket billiard championship here. When the tournament closed last night, both men had won eight and lost four games. Allen's defeat by Andrew St. Jean of Minneapolis, yesterday 425 to 111, was the upset of the tournament, and when Frank Taborski of Detroit lost to Greenleaf last night, 125 to 113, Greenleaf went into a tie with Allen.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR DANIEL J. MURPHY

The funeral of Daniel J. Murphy, one of the city's oldest residents and an organizer of the local branch of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, took place this morning from his late home, 31 Hoyt avenue, a solemn high requiem mass being sung in St. Patrick's church at 10 o'clock with Rev. Denis J. Murphy of St. Paul's church, Cambridge, a nephew of deceased, as celebrant; Rev. John J. McGarry, D.C.L., I.P.P., of St. Patrick's church, as deacon, and Rev. Joseph A. Curran of St. Patrick's, as sub-deacon. Sentences within the sanctuary during the services were: Rev. John C. Duffy, O.M.I., of the Immaculate Conception church; Rev. John J. Ryan, O.C., of St. Paul's church, Cambridge; Rev. John J. O'Hearn, pastor of St. Mary's church, Ipswich; Rev. John W. H. Corbett, S.T.L., of St. Anne's Somerville; Rev. James J. Kerrigan and Rev. William

DANIEL J. MURPHY

J. Conley, of West Quincy; Rev. Denis A. O'Brien, Ph.D., of St. Paul's, Cambridge; Rev. James A. Supple, D.L., and Rev. Thomas J. McDonough of St. Patrick's, Lowell.

St. Patrick's church was well filled with sorrowing relatives and friends of deceased. As a testimonial of esteem for the man who was instrumental in founding their order locally and exercising a sustaining influence over it for more than thirty years, the Ancient Order of Hibernians was well represented at the funeral. The Central Council, A.O.H., was represented by James O'Sullivan, John McInerney, Philip Harley, Patrick Finnigan, T. F. Daley and Patrick Liddy. Other Hibernian delegates were County President John H. Craig of Nauck, County Vice President Timothy McGarry of Cambridge, Past State President William J. Grogan of Waltham, and Past State President John P. Donnelly of Cambridge.

During the mass, the solos were sustained by Edward F. Slattery, Jr., Timothy Finnigan, Mrs. James Murray and Miss Frances Tigh. At the offertory, the "Domine Jesu Christe" was rendered by Mr. William L. Grogan, and as the body was being borne from the church, James E. Hogan sustained the solo in the "Pie Profundi." Miss Sarah A. Murray presided at the organ.

The soloists were Mrs. Antoinette Boudreau, Miss Stella Lamothe, Arthur H. Giroux, Joseph T. Grogan and Dr. J. E. Nolel. At the offertory the choir sang Duval's "Domine Jesu Christe" and at the elevation Mr. Giroux sang "O Meritum Passionis" at the communion. The soloists were Mrs. Antoinette Boudreau, Miss Stella Lamothe, Arthur H. Giroux, Joseph T. Grogan and Dr. J. E. Nolel. The choir sang "Crucifixus" in duet. Miss Antoinette Boudreau was the organist. The bearers of the casket were: Dr. J. E. Nolel, Z. Vidal, Minneau, Joseph Magnus, Adolph Gagnon, Mathias Bourgeois, Hildesheim, and Armand Beauchemin. The casket was borne by Mr. Lippe, represented by Alfred J. Marcotte, Ferdinand D'Amboise, Achille St. Pierre, Joseph Perrault, J. Nelson Fournier and Lorette Gagnon. The funeral was a decoration of employees from the firm of Shaddock and Normandin were in attendance at the services as Mr. Lippe had been employed by that firm for many years. The Sisters of St. Jeanne d'Arc schools with the children were also present at the services. The funeral was in charge of Undertakers James P. O'Donnell & Sons.

LEGISLATORS LOCKED IN

BOSTON, May 1.—The Massachusetts general court remained in session until 6:30 yesterday afternoon in order that the commission of the necessities of life might not pass out of existence at midnight last night. Legislation was finally adopted in the necessities of life commission's existence extended until May 1, 1925. This action was a concession to Gov. Cox, who opposed continuing the commission until May 1, 1925, to which date it was to run under the provisions of a bill enacted earlier this week by both branches.

Gov. Cox considered that bill for 24 hours and yesterday sent a message to the senate recommending the bill. The senate adopted the governor's recommendation and amended the bill, extending the term from four years to one year. It was necessary the senate act without delay as the commission would otherwise pass out at midnight.

NEW YORK, May 1.—More than 3000 iron workers went on strike today, demanding a closed shop and a wage of $12 for eight hour day instead of $10.50.

Charles Murphy, business agent of the Manhattan Local of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, said all union construction in Manhattan, Brooklyn and northern New Jersey was stopped.

The strike marked what was expected to be a May day of complete industrial peace. Regardless of the comparative quiet, the police took the usual precautions.

SAYS WHEELER PROMISED TO HANDLE LAND CASES

WASHINGTON, May 1.—The special senate committee investigating the indictment of Senator Wheeler in Montana was told today that Mr. Wheeler had promised when he came to Washington to take care of the land permits in which his client, Gordon Campbell, was interested.

W. W. Rhea, a Colorado oil man, testified that he heard such an assurance given to Campbell in January, 1923, and that Campbell had told him Wheeler was to be paid for it. The Montana indictment charged that the senator took a fee for appearing before the interior department in the matter.

Under a severe cross examination, the witness stuck to his story but said he first had made these statements within ten minutes after he had met Blair Coan, sent to Montana by Secretary Lockwood of the republican national committee although he did not know for what purpose Coan wanted the information.

Prior to Rhea's testimony the committee had received from Commissioner Spry of the general land office a letter saying the files of his office failed to show that Senator Wheeler ever had appeared as an attorney there in land matters.

age. Fortunes were easily made and quickly made. Land values in Lowell jumped overnight. Kirk Root, the original purchaser of the site of Lowell, bought 100 acres of a 13-acre farm for $17 an acre. He was forced to pay $22 per acre for 7 1/2 acres of the balance and $222 per acre for the other 2 1/2 acres. In 1850-53 mills were being the streams of Lowell and it became the principal cotton manufacturing center in the United States.

Mr. Thompson gave many interesting statistics covering financial conditions in the mill areas. In 1823, 10 companies had invested $2,500,000 in Lowell. And all this time there was built into the mill system of Lowell the ideas and ideals of Francis Cabot Lowell. Physical, social and religious conditions and the welfare in general of the mill workers were looked after by the corporations and schools and churches established.

The Lowell merchant, before closing his address, referred at some length to relations that now exist between employers and employees and touched upon certain conditions also relative thereto. He said in part:

"We are beginning to learn we are in a large measure our brother's keeper and we are beginning to realize that we can do just as we choose with our own life and property where the lives of others are concerned. The organization of industry has had the natural result of a much closer and extended organization of society and we find community and industry dependent on each other. This change is being fully realized by manufacturers today in our city, Lowell."

Mr. Thompson said Lowell textile corporations were today giving support to all the various agencies for the moral, physical and spiritual uplift of the entire community. Reference was made also to the Textile school in terms of praise as an example of corporation support in a community betterment way.

In closing, Mr. Thompson expressed confidence in the future of Lowell and its great industries, saying in part:

"With it all, and we are to abandon the great heritage left to us by our fathers? I'm sure we are not, whatever may be the problems and changes. I'm sure and confident that these great industries are woven securely in the life fabric of New England and that the present day problems will be solved. Plans for permanently fitting employees to higher planes will be laid continually."

OUT OUR WAY

WHY MOTHERS GET GRAY.

DR. WILLIAMS

My Experience is that
DR. CALDWELL'S
SYRUP PEPSIN
Is just what you need

This Will Make Digestion Easy

WHAT the dyspeptic needs is not soda and charcoal and breath perfumes but a medicine that will help his bowels to move regularly, for dyspepsia and constipation are allied. If you will take Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin systematically as the directions on the package call for you will soon digest your food properly and pass it out normally, and heartburn, belching, dizziness, nervousness and bloating will vanish. In time you can dispense with all medicines as Syrup Pepsin will have exercised the intestinal and stomach muscles so they act for themselves. Mr. Lewis F. Schultz of Resnor, Ia., Mrs. Victor Knodler of 3625 Bank St., Louisville, Ky., and hosts of others will verify this.

Formula Plainly Stated

Have no hesitancy giving Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin to anyone young or old. It is a mild, gentle laxative free from narcotics. It will not cramp or gripe. The formula is on the package, a compound of Egyptian senna with pepsin and simple aromatics. A bottle can be had at any drug store and averages less than a cent a dose. Economical for families and fully guaranteed. You will find it a great improvement in taste and action over castor oil, or "ranchy cathartics" made from coal-tar that cause skin diseases, colic that loosens the teeth, salts in water or powder that concentrate the blood and dry the skin.

World Acclaims Success

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the prescription of a well-known physician of that name who practiced successfully for 47 years. It has been on the market thirty years and is today the largest selling liquid laxative in the world. Thousands of families have it in their medicine chest ready when any members show signs of dyspepsia, constipation, torpid liver, sour stomach, biliousness, coated tongue, offensive breath, headaches and such ailments that indicate deranged stomach and bowels. Many serious diseases are prevented by this timely aid.

If you want to try it free before buying...

AMUSEMENT NOTES

R. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

The work of the Four Diamonds, at the R. F. Keith this week is characterized by unusual snap and evidences of a positive delight on the part of the performers. The dancing is wonderfully snappy. There are several other good things on this bill, and Chain & Archer, with their perky conversational comedy, contribute much to the safety of the program. Charles O'Donnell in "The Piano Tuner" is also a star performer. Watts and Hawley in fun and music are right up to the standard. Brown & Lavelle and the Flying Henrys contribute stirring acts. The picture feature is "The Barefoot Boy."

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

George Melford's latest production for Paramount, "The Dawn of a Tomorrow," now playing at the Merrimack Square theatre, is a story of London, its slums and its society. Jacqueline Logan and David Torrence play the leading roles and they are ably supported by Raymond Griffith. The other feature attraction of the current program is "On Time," Richard Talmadge's plot of thrills, with such able supporting players as Lucille Dore, Stuart Holmes and Tom Wilson. It's a supremely thrilling and bolsterously funny photoplay with Talmadge, the dare-devil performer, in one of the best roles of his career.

RIALTO THEATRE

Still packing 'em in! That's "North of Hudson Bay," which is now playing at the Rialto theatre and where it will be shown for the remainder of the week. Never before in the history of Lowell show business has a picture done the record-breaking business that "North of Hudson Bay" is now doing at the Rialto. It establishes one certain fact, that Tom Mix is the greatest drawing in pictures. Everybody likes him—youth or old, rich and poor, just because he's human and is quick on the draw, and in "North of Hudson Bay" he has the greatest role of his long and varied career. See this picture!

The first episode of "Haunted Valley," a new serial with Ruth Roland will be shown on the same bill today, Friday and Saturday, with four acts of vaudeville in addition on Friday night.

THE STRAND

It is not often that pleasure seekers are rewarded with such thorough entertainment as is guaranteed by "Poisoned Paradise," the forbidden story of Paris. The story is from the pen of Robert W. Service, who lived in Monte Carlo for many years, and was inspired to transfer his impressions of this famous gambling resort into a story, through which he weaved a delightful romance. His impressions are so faithfully recorded that the publication of the book is forbidden abroad, but its release in this country insured its use as picture material and the results obtained.

REDUCTION OF INCOME RATES

Senate Democrats Approve Simmons Plan for Substitution of Mellon Tax Plan

Senate Again Takes up Proposal to Restrict Reduction on Gross Incomes

WASHINGTON, May 1.—Democrats today faced the approaching fight over reduction of the income rates with an almost united front as the result of a party conference last night, which gave indorsement to the plan of Senator Simmons, North Carolina, ranking minority member of the finance committee, for substitution for Mellon tax plan.

Meanwhile the senate took up the contest hanging over from an all-day debate yesterday on the treasury proposal to restrict deductions on gross incomes in the new revenue bill in relation to the income of a taxpayer from tax-exempt securities after which Chairman Smoot of the finance committee was ready to press some of the few remaining committee amendments.

A conference of the democratic leadership called for tonight to consider the advisability of a party stand for an amendment by Senator Jones, democrat, New Mexico, proposing a graduated tax on corporations instead of the present flat tax of 12 1/2 per cent, which the senate has agreed to increase to 14 per cent with elimination of the capital stock tax.

GAVE DEMONSTRATION OF WATER CURTAIN

The Chalifoux Co. gave a demonstration of its exterior water-curtain at 12:20 p. m. today, with several hundred persons gathered in the square to watch it and size up its effectiveness as a protection against fire.

Apparently the curtain worked successfully in about every detail, there being only one or two water plugs that failed to function. Officials of the company watched the demonstration closely and checked up on all plug failures.

Protective Co. I was detailed by Chief Saunders for duty inside the building and they were busy most of the time supplying an errand water that seeped in through window casings that were not perfectly tight.

When the curtain is going full blast it creates a solid water fall from the roof to the ground and would make it practically impossible for fire elsewhere to communicate to the Chalifoux building. Today's demonstration continued for five minutes.

WIDOW OF JAKE HAMON TALKS

Says Late Husband's Ambition Was to Make His Son, Jake, Jr., President of U. S.

Says Hamon Swung Support to Harding at Her Request—Pays Tribute to Husband

CHICAGO, May 1.—The ambition of Jake Hamon, Oklahoma politician and oil man, was not to be secretary of the Interior—it was to make his son, Jake, Jr., president of the United States. This was disclosed today by his widow on her return from Washington, where she was summoned to testify before the Teapot Dome investigating committee and then was not asked to take the witness chair.

"He wanted to be nothing else but chairman of the republican national committee," Mrs. Hamon said. "I'll get it and I'll hold it for years, until Jake, Jr., is old enough to take it over," he told me. "Then I'll make him chairman in my place and let him hold it until he is wise enough and old enough, and when that time comes, I'll make Jake, Jr., president—the youngest president of the United States."

Hamon swung his support from former Governor Lowden of Illinois to Warren G. Harding in the 1920 republican convention at her request, publican convention at her request, Mrs. Hamon said. Harding, she explained, was a distant relative of her family. Then the widow, who was married to a Chicago man and divorced since Hamon's death, paid a tribute to the deceased.

"I want to be known by his name; I shall have no other. I shall henceforth be known always as Mrs. Jake Hamon."

SCORES MODERN SCHOOL SYSTEM

Frank B. Bennett, Jr., Editor of U. S. Investor, Makes Startling Indictment

Tells School Superintendents Ideals of Forefathers Forgotten

BOSTON, May 1.—Frank P. Bennett, Jr., editor of the United States Investor, made a startling indictment of the modern school system at a meeting of the school superintendents of the state, held last night. He charged that the modern system failed to live up to the standards set by the writers of the state constitution who required that the public instruction in the state should include some positive teaching of thrift.

Mr. Bennett said in part: The pity is that not enough is being done to preserve the spirit of thrift that used to flourish in the country but that languishes in the city. All of this advertising of the savings banks, that seems almost to overdo the thing, is after all nothing but a small inadequate voice crying in the wilderness. To effect this movement of our people from country to city, some powerful influences simply must lend a hand, and I know no influence that needs to have its pulses quickened to a greater extent, than that influence whose delegates are meeting in this very room at this very moment. It is the senate sergeant-at-arms was forced to invade some of them to round up a sufficient number of members to carry on business on the floor, where the tax bill is under consideration.

Hoping to get an early start on the tax bill, Chairman Smoot of the finance committee had obtained unanimous consent to convene an hour ahead of regular meeting time. Two roll calls counted only 42 senators present, however, the sergeant-at-arms was dispatched to get seven more.

After 10 minutes a quorum was numbered and business proceeded.

not I who charge you and the school system generally with a delinquency. It is a body of men the intellect of whose shoes you and I are not worthy to unshoe. The indictment is drawn against you by the fathers of Massachusetts, who wrote its constitution, by the law-makers of 1780, who live in the spirit of the American Revolution and the ideals for America that it engendered, by every body of law-makers who have revised our statutes from that day to this. Ever since 1780, our law books have borne the injunction upon our educators that they shall not fail to teach thrift. Among the primary virtues, the statutes placed it, right in the same category with patriotism and with honesty, and that law still stands, as a demand upon every teacher, from the president of Harvard college, down to the humblest teacher, in the most remote corner of the Berkshires, that his or her teaching shall include some positive instruction in thrift.

The record of what has been done by teachers, in this work, is not inspiring. It does not make a pleasant story of obedience to either the letter or the spirit of law. From top to bottom, the teaching profession has been inclined to put its hands of the whole problem. It has been very easy to say that the banks will do the work. So far as the banks will do the work, every place where any sort of worth-while school savings system is operated, it is hecause some bank has had the initiative and the enterprise to push the movement, and the school department, often with little enthusiasm, and usually with real reluctance, has then taken part. Certainly the law does not say that thrift teaching shall be given only in places where the local bank happens to be willing to start it and to bear the expense of carrying it on. It never has been the Massachusetts theory of education that children shall receive instruction or not, according to some prosperous institution in the same community is willing to do much of the work and pay most of the cost. There are some figures that are disturbing too. There are 126 mutual savings banks in Massachusetts and yet only 55 of these are handling school savings. Seven others would be but for lack of co-operation between the schools and themselves. And there the record stands, with all of Massachusetts neglected, except for what these 62 are accomplishing. I think I can anticipate your comments. Why aren't the other 160 savings banks, or more, asserting themselves, and doing their part? The frank answer might be, say that they must teach thrift to our children. It says that you must do so. I suspect that you suffer from the same confusion as to savings banks that I find very general all over Massachusetts.

The mutual savings banks of Massachusetts are remarkable organizations. They are the most unselfish concerns that I know in the entire business world.

present, between the hours of 9 a. m. and 7 p. m., but the postmaster said this morning the hours may be changed later after the extent of business done and the busy hours are barred by actual experience. The new superintendent, Raymond W. Burton, will be the only regular employee of this station at the present time and will be assisted during the rush hours and relieved by one of the main office clerks.

The establishment of this new station has been anticipated for many years but it was not until last year that any postal authority in Washington to impress the necessity of the establishment. Last fall, shortly after the opening of the Centralville station, Rep. Fred O. Lewis and Capt. John Jacob Rogers, at the request of numerous residents of the Highlands district, brought the matter before the attention of the postmaster general. The latter took the matter up with Postmaster Delisle, who was also in favor of such a station. With his approval, immediate steps were taken to find a centrally located site

|----------------------------|------------------------------|
| 1/4 cup shortening         | 1 teaspoon vanilla or grated |
| 2 cups sugar               | rind of 1 lemon              |
| 1/4 cup milk               | 4 cups flour                 |
| 2 eggs                     | 3 teaspoons Cleveland's      |
| 1/4 teaspoon grated nutmeg | Baking Powder                |

Cream shortening and sugar together; add milk to beaten eggs and beat again; add slowly to creamed shortening and sugar; add flavoring; add 2 cups flour sifted with baking powder and nutmeg; add enough more flour to roll easily. Roll out very thin on floured board; cut with cookie cutter; sprinkle with sugar; put a raisin or a piece of walnut in the center of each. Bake about 12 minutes in hot oven (380°). If dough is chilled before using it will be easier to handle.

This recipe makes about 6 dozen cookies.

BIGELOW-HARTFORD NO. 3 MILL SOLD TO LOCAL AUTO AGENCY

Prince-McCann Co. Purchaser of Property With Market Street Frontage, Assessed at $60,000—To Be Used for Service and Parts Department

One of the most important real estate transfers involving property in the business section of the city this year, was completed today when final papers were passed here transferring ownership of the former property of the Bigelow-Hartford Corporation in Market street known as Mill No. 3. The grantee in this transaction was J. Murry Howe of Boston and the buyer the Prince-McCann company of this city. The transfer was made through the office of Thomas H. Elliott company, real estate dealers of this city, and the assessed value of the property involved is $60,000.

No. 3 mill of the former Bigelow-Hartford corporation is located immediately facing upon a large open lot next to the police station in Market street. It is one of the large mills formerly used in the manufacture of carpets and is of mill construction throughout. Its location, directly opposite the present Prince-McCann office and salesroom, is considered ideal by the purchasers.

The Prince-McCann company is the local agent for Studebaker cars. Mark J. McCann, founder of the business, started twelve years ago in a small store in Gorham street selling bicycles. As motor vehicles became more numerous he engaged in the sale of motorcycles and side-cars. The logical step into the automobile business came in 1914 when he moved to the City Hall garage, there selling the Maxwell and Vello cars.

Five years ago he took over the Studebaker agency and has built up one of the finest selling organizations in the city. Among his employees who have been with the company during its growth are Harry Gallagher, employed with Mr. McCann for 11 years; Leroy Spaulding, for four years a successful Studebaker salesman; Herbert Fallows, service manager for three years; and Miss Marie Roy, office manager for three years.

Last year, Arthur D. Prince became interested in the automobile business and, having been owner of a Studebaker for three years, investigated the possibility of joining with Mr. McCann, and finally purchased an interest in the company. With his entry into the business, it naturally branched out considerably and became one of the largest automobile sales companies in this district.

The building purchased today will be used exclusively for service and parts departments. The paint shop, used and new car salesrooms, will be located as at present, in the large building at 165 Market street.

One hundred pounds of wheat produces 70 pounds of flour.

FRECKLE-FACE

Sun and Wind Bring Out Ugly Spots. How to Remove Easily.

Here's a chance, Miss Freckle-face, to try a remedy for freckles with the guarantee of a reliable concern that it will not cost you a penny unless it removes the freckles; while if it does give you a clear complexion the expense is trifling.

Simply get an ounce of Othine—double strength—from any druggist and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of the homely freckles and get a beautiful complexion. Rarely is more than one ounce needed for the worst case.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength Othine as this strength is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles. —Adv.

THE other day I had occasion to take the Boston Post Road, bound for Hartford, Springfield, and on to Maine, to spend a few days with the family. In the course of the journey, I stopped perhaps half a dozen times, to fill up with Socony Gasoline, and once to ask my way after dark.

As is my custom, I always stop and chin a bit with those genial boys, who invariably are found dispensing Socony products. On this occasion, as many others, I noted the frequency with which women drivers stop at Socony stations, and the invariable courteous and quick service which they receive from employees. As one of the boys put it, "A woman knows what she wants, and we always see that she gets it."

A discriminating woman always buys Socony Gasoline.

Married Women Working in Factories Characterized as Snags by Unwed Girls

NEW YORK, May 1.—Married women working in factories were characterized as snags in industrial progress by 500 unwed factory girls, members of the National Industrial Assembly of the Y. W. C. A. in a report made today to the eighth annual convention of the Young Women's Christian Association. The report said that girls who plead for shorter hours are told by employers that the establishments can get "plenty of married women to work for anything."

LAST PHASE OF SENATE OIL INVESTIGATION

WASHINGTON, May 1.—The senate oil committee for the first time in its inquiry into the leasing of the naval reserves took up in detail today the situation in reserve No. 2 on Buena Vista hills in California.

Assistant Secretary Finney of the interior department and Director H. Foster Bain of the bureau of mines, were called for questioning in what committee members said was the last phase of the long investigation.

Mr. Finney gave to the committee a complete list of all leases made on the Buena Vista reserve and reviewed the history of each. This reserve is known as the "blackboard" reserve, because the lands held for the navy were in most instances alternating sections with the intervening sections under private control.

A bit rusty and dusty, with rumpled hair and sand-flecked cheeks, clothes half-worn out and shoes dilapidated, the Wanderlust twins—Frank Tuohy, 18 and Freddie Hayden, 19 were ordered out of a Boston & Maine box car in the south yards early last evening by Special Officers Symonds and Graves, escorted to police headquarters and given warm meals and cot beds for the night.

Hayden and Tuohy appeared entirely at ease and not at all disturbed by their arrest. Judge John J. Pickman, who presided in the absence of Judge Knight, explained briefly that he was a member of a wideawake football squad at San Diego high school before he left for the far trails. That was on Feb. 1, he "met up" with his chum, Tuohy, he said, in Georgia, O., and both decided to make out by rail for Charlestown, P. E. I., where Hayden's grandmother lives.

Mart, Texas.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to build me up as I was all run down, nervous and sick. Iached and hurt all over so that I was often compelled to go to bed, and I had to have most of my work done. My medicine seemed to help me out of one of my neighbors who was taking the Vegetable Compound insisted on me trying a bottle of it. The medicine helped me from the first, and the best of all is that I can even again without that awful, nervous feeling I was used to having. As I used to take crying spells, with such a blue feeling that I cannot explain. Now all that has left me. I feel cheerful and I have gained in weight, sleep well and eat heartily. Oh! I had words to express what I am feeling. The Vegetable Compound has done for me what I am a housekeeper and do every thing from the sewing to the washing now at it doesn't hurt me. ## FIND KIDNAPPED GIRL IN METHUEN

Search Ends at Camp—Five Men, One Her Cousin, Arrested

One of Most Sensational Kidnappings in Recent Years

LAWRENCE, May 1.—One of the most sensational kidnappings cases which has occurred in this city in recent years resulted last night in the arrest of five residents of Lawrence, each of whom it held in $5,000 bonds for his appearance in the local district court today.

The kidnapped girl, Agatina Cavallaro, aged 17, of West Andover, was found late yesterday afternoon at a camp in Pleasant Valley section of Methuen and taken back to her home.

The defendants in this case are Sam Buffalo of 25 1/2 Common street and Mario Tosto of 25 1/2 Common street, both charged with kidnapping; Carmello Cavallaro of 99 North st., West Andover, charged with kidnapping; assault upon Agatina Cavallaro—his cousin—and with carrying a loaded revolver, and Gaetano Bruno and Joseph Cammarato, charged with being accessories, both before and after the fact, to the kidnapping.

BEECHAM'S PILLS
Sweeten the Stomach

Ayer millie in this city, received a telephone call to the effect that their mother was dangerously ill and that they must come home at once.

Never once doubting the genuineness of the message, the two girls obtained leave and hastened from the factory, hurrying up Union street in the direction of Essex street, to get a street car for Andover. When they were just in front of the Lawrence Duck company's store on Union street, an automobile, with three men inside, drew up at the curb beside them and two of the men jumped out, kidnapping Agatina, throwing her into the car and driving off, all in the space of a few seconds, heading in the direction of Methuen.

Her sister Josephine screamed for help. She was taken to the Lawrence police station, where she related the story of what had just occurred. Motorcycle Officer William T. Dowd was at once dispatched to the Pleasant Valley section of Methuen.

Spot Automobile

Upon arriving there, Paine saw an automobile answering the description furnished by the frantic girl, and promptly stopped it at the point of his revolver. Buffalo and Tosto were inside and he held them under cover of his revolver while police aid was summoned by bystanders.

The two men, when he immediately placed under arrest on a kidnapping charge, admitted being inside the car when the girl was kidnapped, though denying any specific guilt in the matter. Both of their faces were scratched and their clothing was torn, as if from a struggle.

The pair were taken to the Lawrence police station, where they admitted that the Cavallaro girl and a third man—whose name they would not tell—were then somewhere in Pleasant Valley, though they refused to give the address.

A quick trip to the valley in question was made by City Marshal Fred A. Hilton, Jr., Lieut. Daniel W. Dwyer, Inspector Charles R. Woodcock, Sgt. Patrick J. Morrissey—all of the Lawrence police department—and Chief of Police James W. Riley of Methuen, but the search was without results.

The group went on to Salisbury Beach, with equally fruitless results. Returning late in the afternoon to Pleasant Valley, they decided to visit a certain camp there, the property of Bruno, which had been under suspicion of late.

Search Ends

Surrounding the camp, they found the girl, Agatina Cavallaro, and two men, her cousin, Carmello Cavallaro, and Gaetano Bruno, owner of the property.

According to the story which the police say the girl told them, she was kidnapped on the streets of Lawrence by her cousin, Buffalo and Tosto, who took her to the camp in question, when Buffalo and Tosto left, only to be arrested a few minutes later. Once alone with her, the girl said, her cousin insisted that she must marry him or else he would commit suicide by shooting.

She refused to do so, according to her own statement, and then he drew his revolver and placed it at his own head. Rather than have him shoot himself, the girl said she agreed to yield to his wish. Some time afterwards Bruno, the owner of the camp, came in and informed Cavallaro of the arrest of Buffalo and Tosto, suggesting that the only way out of a bad scrape was for the couple to get married the following day. At this point the police entered.

The Cavallaro girl was taken back to her home last evening.

Held For Grand Jury

LAWRENCE, May 1.—Five local Italians were held in district court today for the grand jury in connection with the kidnapping yesterday of Agatina Cavallaro, 17, of West Andover, who was called from her work in a local mill on the pretext that her mother was seriously ill.

Carmello Cavallaro, a cousin of the girl, was held in $5,000 bonds on a kidnapping charge and $1000 additional on a statutory charge. Sam Buffalo and Mario Tosto were held in $5,000 each for kidnapping and an additional $1,000 for breaking and entering for which he had been wanted for some time. Gaetano Bruno and Joseph Cammarato, charged with being accessories to the fact of kidnapping, were held in $5,000 bonds each.

All of the defendants pleaded not guilty.

Mayor Presages Reduction In Local Trolley Fares
Continued

"Things are pretty dull here as we know," said the mayor this morning in discussing the matter. "When the mills get running again on better schedules and with more workers the passenger traffic is bound to pick up. I shall watch for developments and repeat my request as soon as I feel it is warranted. I see no reason why we cannot look forward to cheaper car fares and am very much pleased with the attitude of the company officials. Mr. McCormick has co-operated with me to a great extent in stating our case to his trustees and their letter strikes me as a fair and reasonable statement."

The letter to the mayor follows:

"Dear Mr. Mayor:

"We beg to acknowledge your request of April 22nd, through Mr. McCormick, our local manager, for a reduction in the rate of car fares in the Lowell district.

"The Lowell district for the twelve months ending December 31, 1923 just barely earned the cost of service, having a surplus of only $129.21 at the close of the year. The passenger revenue for the first quarter of 1924 in Lowell is $25,000.00 less than the first quarter of 1923. Revenue for April is falling off at the rate of $11,000.00 per month, and because of the extremely bad industrial conditions and the increasing use of automobiles, this decrease in revenue is very likely to continue for several months.

Operating expenses are at a maximum because of the large amount of track construction, and with the present decrease in passenger revenue we are facing a deficit of at least $50,000 for the rest of the year with present rate of fare, which is 15 rides for $1.00. If the fares in Lowell are reduced by increasing the number of rides to 17 for $1.00, it would make a further decrease in our revenue of approximately $42,000.00 per year.

"Charged with the duty of operating the street railway system so that transportation may be furnished at cost to the communities which we serve, we cannot reduce fares when it is known that the reduction will result in the railway being operated at a loss.

"When industrial conditions are restored to somewhere near normal, we will be very glad to again consider your request, and, if possible, grant the same."

Very truly yours,
"BOARD OF PUBLIC TRUSTEES,
By Arthur G. Wadleigh, Chairman."

SPRINGFIELD PUTS BAN ON JITNEYS

SPRINGFIELD, May 1.—After a lengthy session yesterday, the transportation board of the city council voted to ban jitneys. This decision was made notwithstanding that a campaign to test sentiment showed 27,000 voters to be in favor of busses.

There were sharp clashes in the conference between Richard J. Talbot, counsel for the Bus Owners' association, and Mayor Leonard.

The jitneys ceased running legally last night by order of the authorities. Although the busses are banned as licensed vehicles, the jitney men will make another effort for reconsideration.

The vehicles will continue to run, but will make no charge until Monday night, at least, when the bus owners will try to have the city council go on record as favoring a referendum vote on the question of whether the busses should be allowed to operate.

REUNION WITH ROME DISCUSSED

Possibility of Reunion of Anglican Catholic and Roman Catholic Faiths

Subject of Discussion at Convention of Protestant Episcopal Priests

PHILADELPHIA, May 1.—Possibility of the reunion of the Anglican Catholic and Roman Catholic faiths, separated since the time of Henry VIII, was voted here last night, at the convention of Protestant Episcopal priests. The meeting closed today with a high mass at St. Clement's church.

The Rev. Dr. Joseph G. A. Barry, rector of the church of St. Mary the Virgin, New York, advanced three bases on which a reunion might be sought, while Bishop Irving P. Johnson of Colorado emphasized the fact that Anglicans and Romans have the same sacraments, creeds, scriptures and ministry. The Rev. Dr. George Craig Stewart, rector of St. Luke's church, Evanston, Ill., deplored the divisions in the church as "a scandal and a sin," and discussed the problem of reunion.

Bishop Thomas F. Gallor, president of the National council of the Episcopal church, urged loyalty "as good Catholics" to the Episcopal communion. Dr. Barry advanced these three points on which he said a reunion with Rome might be reached:

- 1.—Concurrence in the belief that Christ conferred primacy upon St. Peter and the bishops of Rome succeeding him.
- 2.—Agreement that church jurisdiction should be allocated to the pope.
- 3.—Belief in "an infallibility which is the mind of the church through the pope as its organ of statement and which is authenticated by its recognition by the whole church."

Its destructive force, however, seemed partly spent as it swept eastward through Virginia last evening, no deaths having occurred there so far as known and but slight property damage being reported.

Dead and injured and many of those unhurt were picked up by the fierce winds and hurled hundreds of feet. Miles of telephone and telegraph lines were torn down, hundreds of dwellings and other buildings were ripped from their foundations and demolished, trees were uprooted and numbers of livestock were killed; while bridges were washed away and roads flooded in many sections by torrential rains which accompanied the storm.

COMMON SENSE

When a merchant advertises his wares in a newspaper, he does not appeal to the paper, but to its readers. He solicits the patronage of those readers whether he agrees with the policy of the paper or not.

To refrain from advertising in a paper of wide circulation simply because he does not agree with the editor on all public questions, is not using common sense. It is a form of business suicide. It has sent many short-sighted business men into bankruptcy. A dealer might as well put a sign over his store notifying all who do not think as he does that he does not want their patronage. Readers of newspaper advertisements know when and where their patronage is welcome.

HUB MAN IN BUDAPEST

Commissioner General for Hungary Under League Scheme Arrives

BUDAPEST, May 1.—Jeremiah Smith of Boston, commissioner general for Hungary under the League of Nations reconstruction scheme, arrived this morning. He was greeted at the station by representatives of the premier and foreign minister and was driven past a line of photographers to the Hotel Hungaria where he will reside temporarily.

The government intends to offer him rooms in the left wing of the royal palace with offices in the ministry of finance.

will be in charge of their physical instructor, Victor Marzec, while Miss Sophie Ciesla will direct the girls. Several Lowell Falcons will give an exhibition in calisthenics and gymnastics at Brooklyn, N. Y., on next Labor day. Frank J. Kiosowicz of this city, is president of the 10th district.

Inspector of Buildings

Moynihan commenced his duties at once at the request of the mayor in order that the department, which is one of the busiest at city hall, would continue to function normally.

Mr. Moynihan, who lives at 12 Hampshire street, is a life-long friend of the mayor and the appointment is in every sense a personal one. Born in Lowell, the new building inspector was graduated from three grammar and the Lowell high schools. He has been in construction work for the past 15 years or more and has been particularly prominent as a master and journeyman plumber. He is a past president of the Lowell local of the Journeymen Plumbers' union.

He is a member of the Lowell Navy club and the American Legion, Lowell lodge, No. 57, I.O.O.F., Elks, the Master Plumbers' association, the Contractors association, the Lowell Fish and Game club and Centralville East End Social club.

The oath was administered at 11.40 a.m. in this morning by Mr. Flynn in the presence of Harry Glasheen, secretary to the mayor, Mr. Connor, his predecessor, was among the first to congratulate him in his appointment and wish him success in his new office.

Jack Daw's Adventures. Chapter 6

Before Jack could explain that the monkey was hanging on to Flip, instead of Flip hanging onto the monkey, the monkey man turned and walked away. Jack then stooped down and patted Flip, who was still very much scared. "You'd better stay right here with me," advised Jack.

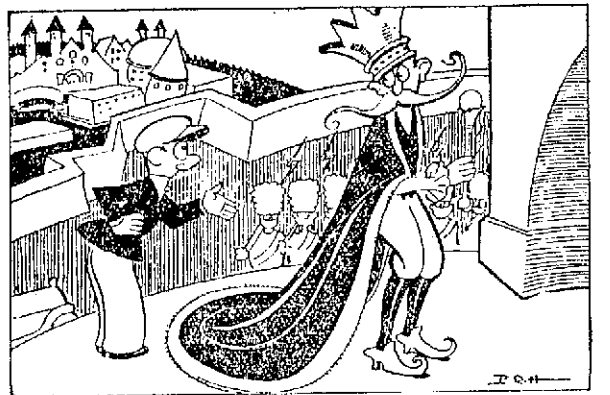

All of this time the work of putting up the tent and side-show places was going on. Jack marveled at how fast the men worked. He walked over to one of the smaller tents and asked if he could help spread the straw that was being used in the stalls where the ponies were standing.

"Don't need any help here," replied the man Jack had approached, "but maybe they'll let you carry water for the elephants down at the elephant tent." So Jack ran to the elephant tent. He looked around but couldn't find the entrance. So he peered underneath the tent. (Continued.)

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

Olive Roberts Barton

"WHY, YOUR MAJESTY," SPOKE UP MISTER MUGGS

"Where are we going now?" asked the king, looking at the row of stones on top of the wall. "The next station in Once-Upon-A-Time Land," said Mister Muggs. "Is where the Brave Little Tailor lives. He was the one who killed seven flies with one swing. He was so proud of himself he went out into the world to seek his fortune. Everywhere he went he boasted that he had killed seven at one blow, and every one thought he meant seven people. The king gave him three riddles to do, and when he succeeded in accomplishing them, the king gave him his daughter for a wife, and half of his kingdom."

Away they went over seven prairies and through seven forests, and came at last to the Kingdom of the Brave Little Tailor.

Two castles stood on top of two hills, and running up and down the kingdom, dividing it straight into two equal parts, was a stone wall as high and as thick as the Great Wall of China.

"What's that for?" asked Mister Muggs of a beehive standing beside the road. "That's a spite wall," answered the beehive. "When the king found out that the man who married his daughter was only a tailor instead of a mighty warrior, he got so mad that he had his army build the wall between the two halves of his kingdom. The tailor and his wife live in one castle and the king lives in the other."

"You don't say so?" cried Mister Muggs. "A pretty little fish, I call it."

"Not fish, sir! Fish!" said the beehive. "That's really what made the king so mad. He found out that after all his boasting, his son-in-law had killed seven flies at one blow instead of seven people, as he supposed. Every time he hears something more about the way the tailor outwitted him, he has his army put another row of stones on top of the wall. It will soon be up to the sky."

"Put, put!" exclaimed Mister Muggs. "Nanny and Nick, we'll go and see this king and see if we can't fix things up. I always liked the Brave Little Tailor when I read about him. He was a merry fellow, and that is more than can be said for some people I know."

The little car went right up to the front door of the king's castle and at that minute the king stepped out to give an order to his army. "I've just heard something more about that tailor son-in-law of mine," he cried. "Put an-

BUSINESS CONDITIONS

Improvement Noted in Certain Industries in New England Last Month

BOSTON, May 1.—The combination of poor weather and lessened confidence in the immediate outlook has prolonged the somewhat unsettled business conditions in New England, although in several important industries, trade in factories. Furthermore, some improvement was reported in April by certain industries which had previously complained of poor business. In New England as a whole, however, conditions in April approximately held their own, when compared with April of March. The volume of business of many of the more important industries, as well as retail trade, normally expands every spring. This year, too, business increased during March and April, as compared with January and February, but when a comparison of the relatively small increase this spring is made with that which ordinarily occurs, the present hesitation in business activity is more apparent.

Bank deposits are one of the important factors which showed an improvement in April of very nearly the usual proportion. The fact that deposits of many of member banks in New England have increased during recent weeks, while the so-called "commercial" loans have declined, furnishes an excellent index of the character of the present situation. Commercial loans would undoubtedly not be liquidated coincidentally with an increase of commercial deposits, if inventories were unwieldy or there was much of an element of real strain in the business situation. When fundamental economic factors are working into a dangerous position, commercial loans of banks to their customers tend to increase rather than decrease, as they are doing at present.

The building industry is another important factor in the New England situation which showed the usual amount of seasonal expansion in operations between February and March. New construction especially residential, continues in large volume in this district.

Much of the recent contraction has been in the volume of new business and production, rather than in shipments of merchandise. Carloadings of merchandise and miscellaneous freight in New England have not only increased steadily since the first of the year, but also have been larger than during the corresponding period of 1920.

One of the causes of the recent change in the attitude of business men has been the decline in commodity prices. When buyers for any reason hesitate to order merchandise, there is a tendency for commodity prices to decline, and this very decline regenerates further hesitation. Some such progress as this has been going on during recent weeks. However, fewer wholesale commodities declined in price during the first three weeks of April than during the preceding three weeks while a larger number increased during the first three weeks of April than in the previous three weeks. To be sure, there remained a net excess of wholesale price declines over advances in April, but apparently the reaction was losing in force rather than gaining.

The financial situation, as for months past, continues strong, and is one of the most important factors tending to stabilize the business situation.
